Scientifically isolated causality and delightful resolution

Project David, by Ian Clarke (author of Project Speak Up 2021)

November 2023

Only what's inside matters As in, the light we carry

Michelle Obama (We/Human)

Benevolence /br'nevələns/ (noun)

From the Latin 'Bene Velle' ('Well Wishing'). But in Old English, 'Velle' translates as the power to make our own decisions. Free Will comes from authentic, unilateral, unrequited, enduring and unconditional True Love.

What this report means

The conclusions of an in-depth investigation by the Change Engine, compiled for change makers and your curious, great minds. It offers unique insights from a different perspective – a human one. For the first time in history it uses breakthrough science (quantum mechanics and entanglement) to identify and explain the wars 14 causal triggers, quantify its wider adverse impact on us all, and provide a win-win resolution acceptable to both sides. It's an opportunity for peaceful coexistence that can save life, deliver accountability and bring justice. Who could ever argue with that?

Why this report matters'

A delightful report is...

- ✓ Independent: We are a self-funded, privately owned small business
- ✓ Zero conflicts of interest: We have no external earnings or affiliations
- ✓ Impartial: No one involved is Palestinian, Israeli, Jewish or Muslim
- ✓ Scientifically proven: All statements authenticated to the global scientific standard ('almost certain')
- ✓ Legal validity: Science exceeds all legal thresholds
- ✓ Trustworthy: All data and statements are fully cited
- ✓ Authentic: We say what we see. We mean what we say.
- ✓ Free to download: Reading it costs you nothing
- ✓ Capable of saving life: But only if you read it.

NOTE: Report contains material non-public price sensitive information with the potential to change world financial markets.

Executive Summary (1/2)

Imagine how you'd feel... if this were your son right now

Turkestan, Afghanistan, Transcaspia, Persia – to many these words breathe only a sense of utter remoteness, or a memory of strange vicissitudes and of moribund romance. To me I confess they are pieces on a chessboard upon which is being played out a game for domination of [the Middle East and] the world

George Curzon (We/Human)
UK Viceroy to India 1899-1905

A brutal yet sophisticated and coordinated strategic assault by Hamas levelled at targets across southern Israel on 7 October left the nation shocked, in pain and feeling vulnerable. The death toll of up to 1,400 lost Israeli souls is by far the highest of any such attack since 1982. It exposed the unsustainability of maintaining the status quo and the incompetence of Israeli Intelligence. Both US and Egypt indicate they had prewarned Israel days earlier of the attack yet it did nothing to stop it. A strategy with only one explanation – to justify war.

Low and behold, politicians of Israel and the world universally failed to muster any humility by admitting their failures to act on mounting tensions between Israeli's and Gazan's for months now, and indeed for a century before us.

Instead, as if prepared, Israel announced the next day an all-out declaration of war on its neighbour, triggering what is likely to become the largest global humanitarian crisis in recent history.

Huge swathe's of a blockaded Gaza Strip are now being leveled by Israel's vastly superior, totally indiscriminate arsenal, as it now launches a ground assault intended to destroy everything that remains alive.

The mounting, unnecessary loss of life on both sides has now moved beyond the level any human could possibly tolerate watching.

Yet as per George Curzon's astute observations, there is more to situations like this than first meets the eye,

Executive Summary (2/2)

A game for domination is afoot, where the only outcome is now lose-lose.

If you can read and understand these words, that means you are a Change Maker. If you can read and understand this entire report, your potential is in the top 3% of all Change Makers – a Titan of Change – and I need your help. We all do. Because there aren't many of us left.

Never attempted before, this apolitical report deploys new science, chiefly breakthrough quantum mechanics, to:

- a) Identify and explain the 14 causal triggers that led to this catastrophe alongside evidence to a scientific level of 'almost certainty';
- b) Concludes the war and israel's actions are illegal
- c) Provide options for others worldwide to help fix this situation and those linked to its causality;
- c) Add the possibility of a win-win outcome for everyone to the table.

But you don't need to be a scientist to read it. You simply need to have the heart to hope, the desire for change and the ability to imagine a better outcome. If that's you, you'll also find many answers within this report to questions you've had all your life.

But if not, then like life itself, you will never reach chapter 2.

Only what's inside matters

The Human Genome Project (2003) proved we are all born equal. The rest is a major drag on our individual and collective potential.

The levels of dehumanisation across global societies has now reached a tipping point, with those without honour, who allow themselves to succumb to it, outnumbering those of us with the courage and worthiness to resist it.

What's more, the side effects of dehumanisation are far more severe and damaging – also at an individual and collective level – than we have ever been told by media, politicians or academics.

A wave of dehumanisation is now taking hold of our planet. Akin to a pervasive and highly infectious global pandemic, it triggers an acute inversion of perceptions, loss of emotions and heavy automation in those it afflicts – brain death.

To them, tragically...

Hatred Love is love

We have a duty to help them regain their sapience. But more urgently to save their victims – as in, all of us.

Israel-Hamas War Report

Introduction and context

We do things differently. We lead from the heart, not the head

Diana Spencer (We/Human)

Ask yourself a moment...

Who are you... really?

Despite sharing 99.9% of our DNA with each other, every human is special. Never before has there been someone just like you, nor will there ever be again.

As change makers, each of us possess rare combinations of intrinsic uniqueness (like talent, perspectives, priorities and experiences) and extrinsic differences (like our name, race, age, sexuality, gender and neurodiversity). And we each possess varying strengths and weaknesses, yet somehow broadly balancing out into no net advantage or disadvantage at an individual or group characteristic level.

But when combined, together, as a single entity – like a flock of starlings or a symphonic orchestra – that complexity of uniqueness has for 300,000 years ensured the very survival of our species – Humanity.

A uniquely important species as verifiably the only sapient life in the known universe, both today and across time.

Our obligation is to our selves, each other and the future, to ensure change makers can survive. Our growing rejection of human uniqueness in favour of the malevolent Dark Energy anomaly is the biggest threat imaginable. There is just one race – the human race – and we have a lot to remember quickly about our reality if we are to avoid causing its destruction and thus our own.

All life depends on it including the helpless majority who have no choice.

We have to learn to love our differences. Because without uniqueness we are nothing special

Without it, we cannot reach our potential as a species and we won't survive much longer.

Fact: Opposites attract

I'm often asked, 'why aren't you with all the blacks and gays?'. I do see our differences – race, sexuality and what not – but I don't see them as that different.

There's so much more to discover and experience beyond the illusion that is our comfort zone. By exploring the stories of those most unlike us, only then do you truly realise just how identical we all are.

Maybe it's why we do this ▼

Look around to see just how much we all love differences. Everywhere you see a happy face, you find people and experiences that, no matter how many of us there'll ever be, you will never find again.

A life without change, uniqueness or others surely wouldn't be worth living

Choice to make: Climb the hill?

To be or not to be?

That is ‘the question of existence’, and one now facing every being on Earth today.

Should we bury our heads in the sand and pretend nothing is wrong with our world or else that it will all just miraculously get better with hope alone?

Or should we dare to stand out by trying something different, something new – a ‘change’ – in case, just maybe, it makes a meaningful difference to the unimaginable suffering, death and hardship currently being endured for real by our fellow beings in Israel and Palestine?

After all...

History isn’t something you look back at and say ‘that was inevitable’. It happens because people make decisions that are sometimes very impulsive and of the moment. But those moments become cumulative realities.

Marsha P Johnson (We/Human)

If we fail to help them, it is we – not they – who truly die, inside. Where it counts most.

The Answer: Do or Die

The Israel-Hamas war, the war in Ukraine, the riots at Planalto Palace Brazil last year, and Capital Hill the year prior – all connected to one and the same issue.

We are all suffering, every one of us. Yet as change makers, not everyone can connect the dots and see things with the clarity we can. Though it is not of our making, it is in our common interests to work together and help them see the light so that we all may fix this situation. Our obligation is to our children and their future.

So we lift our gazes not to what stands between us, but what stands before us. We close the divide because we know to put our future first, we must first put our differences aside. We lay down our arms so we can reach out our arms to one another, we seek harm to none and harmony for all

Amanda Gorman (We/Human)

Then why are we doing this to each other exactly?

Only read on if you truly wish to know the answer.

Note: This report is best read by curious and open minds comfortable with truth and the reality we actually know very little

Dire: Situation Assessment

Flashpoint Israel under fire

In what is surely among the worst leadership and security failings in the nations history, early morning on Saturday 7 October 2023, Hamas – the defacto government of Gaza – launched a series of sophisticated and coordinated scale attacks, overwhelming defences to penetrate deep into Israel’s south.

Reaching as far as its domestic commercial hub of Tel Aviv, the surprise ground and air assault marked the country’s deadliest in decades, killing over 1,000 Israeli’s, wounding thousands, amid reports from fragmented militant groups of ‘over 100’ more held hostage across Palestinian Territories. Sadly today, human shields are no shield at all.

Fallout Obliterate Palestine

Each with entirely valid concerns and indeed wholly reconcilable, mutual common goals, months of escalating tensions between Israeli’s and Gazan’s have instead led to nothing but meaningless talk from politicians acting in self-interest.

None even attempted conciliation – with words like diffuse, compromise, listen or negotiate – Israel’s official response the next day was instead a remorseless formal declaration of war upon its neighbour. This new low point in relations, prospects and tensions for the embittered region marks a global humanitarian crisis that could rapidly become global conflict. Yet just look at the odds.

No human is ever ‘bad’ intentionally. Broadly predictable as it is, our behaviour is an output of our experiences and the sensory stimuli we encounter

Introduction: Science and the nature of Borders

Analysing the issues across our world today is incredibly difficult, due to an absence of openness and accountability from wayward nations only concerned with their own self-interests. Failing to collaborate as they all are with even their neighbours due to something as foolish as a line in the sand.

If you've ever been fortunate enough to travel beyond the lines in your sand, you'll quickly discover that humans are broadly the same wherever you go.

We all love, we all cry, we all dance, we all hope, we all dream and we all make mistakes sometimes.

A. Emeli Sandé (We/Human)

Today, borders are social construction's that pit even those in the same family against each other. Just look at the proxy war invasion of Europe and Russia taking place in Ukraine, or the insurmountable 'hate thy neighbour' demonstrations taking place in Scotland and England, UK and EU, China and Taiwan, India & Pakistan, North and South Korea, a divided Ireland, or across the wider Middle East.

Our 'leaders' have gifted us a truly dreadful mess.

Like speed, distance, time and all other measures, borders are relative. That means they're useful only to compare differences between one thing and another – geographies, in this case. Today, like humanity itself, they are being abused.

The single positive use of a border is to ensure those within it have an equal say in how decisions impacting their lives are made as those outside of it. Then to capture authentic data which can verify to us all that is indeed the case

Jupiter (We/Human)

Hatred, deception, jealousy, revenge, nepotism, greed, bias, ignorance, selfishness... Collectively and meaningfully labelled 'malevolence', these traits damage economies, destroy lives and doom our future as a species.

But human nature isn't about all that. It's about courage, potential, conviction, drive, ambition, worthiness, success, determination, helping each other and true love. You know that. So why pretend not to? You cannot lie to your self.

God does not play dice

Albert Einstein (We/Human)

Like me, agnostic, Albert's point here wasn't religious. Rather he sees that, for every problem we encounter, any question we can imagine, science has the resounding answer. Simply isolate cause and effect using sapience and cognition – uniqueness like determination, logic, deduction, investigation, research and speculation – to scientifically derive a solution.

No perspective is incorrect from the point of view of the perceiver

Aristotle (We/Human)

Images coming out of Gaza and Israel, like Ukraine before them, are truly heartbreaking. It's soothing to imagine a fair world with a bright future. That Hamas and Gaza's people brought themselves this war. But in reality things are always more complicated than they first appear. Given world leaders universal failure to address the issues prescient, ultimately war was inevitable.

"This is a trauma like I could never imagine. I can't even explain the energy they (the militants) had. It was so clear they didn't see us as human beings. They looked at us with pure, pure hate"

Maya Alper (Not a Human Being), Supernova Festival survivor

"I live on Gaza's border and I've seen things in my life, but I've never felt it this close"

Zohar Maariv (We/ Human), Supernova Festival survivor

Anyone can criticize. Few can empathise. And nearly no one, it seems, can imagine nor admit Socrates point that we would all do the exact same thing if we were in their shoes. Without excusing the attack on Supernova, I imagine its intention was for some of those pictured here to walk away with their eyes and minds opened. That's as to how fortunate they are, and how much worse the trauma must be for Palestinians who live in fear of such attacks every day of their sadly short lives. If so, given Maya's selfish comments, it failed... mostly. But some beings possess the greatest superpower of all. Us Wise Humans, we can listen. Worth risking death for, we heard their call for help loud and clear.

Confidence in authority comes when we seek out and value – never denigrate or ignore - different human perspectives

I was born in 1985, long after the misdeeds that sealed my doom, yours, and that of all beings. So I lack the benefit of old age, claimed 'heterosexuality' and white skin, thus wisdom (lol!), privilege, money plus a career (ideally in international diplomacy) or now a future.

As my equal and opposite on these ten (spoiler alert: meaningless) 'extrinsic' differences, I asked this helpful, aptly-named chap for advice on a viable strategy here.

“ The US government is seriously disturbed by the attitude of Israel with respect to a territorial settlement in Palestine and the question of Palestinian refugees. Your position contemplates not only the retention of all territory held under military occupation, which is clearly in excess of partition boundaries, but possibly the acquisition of further territory within Palestine.

Israel should offer territorial compensation for any acquisition it expects to effect beyond the boundaries set forth in the GA's 1947 resolution – our view based upon elementary principles of fairness and equity.

The US government is gravely concerned lest Israel now endanger the possibility of a solution to the Palestine problem, thus undermine sound and friendly relations with its neighbours.

A rupture arising out of the rigid attitude of the government of Israel would place heavy responsibility upon that government and its people.

If Israel continues to reject basic principles of the GA and advice offered by the US, a revision of our attitude towards Israel will become unavoidable. ”

 Sent with courage, conviction and resolve to Israeli Prime Minister David Ben Gurion 27 May 1949 (Link)

For good or bad, some things never change

Harry (We/Human) and I align word verbatim at that time on this statement.

Despite our clear differences and the passage of 78 years of space and time since. A nice change, unlike our view on how leaders handle the issue today

Empty words followed not with meaningful deeds by 13 presidents over the 73 years since.

Damning, multi-generational, abject total failure to lead, and of the most (ir)responsible in the chain of causal events that brought us to today's war. Thus the vivid US impotence to lead our world through change it claims to be capable of.

Cause 1: Near-universal deception and rigidity

From sun to sea to shores, to ourselves and society at large, nearly everything changes all the time. Indeed, time itself.

The human nature of change

Yet in our divided modern times, many have become reluctant to change. Rampant, 'uncontrolled' change, or worse – backwards, meaningless 'unchange' – poses acute risks to our individual and collective survivability.

In our world today, bringing others together, to collectively create and drive meaningful positive change in the common good verges on impossible. It's why we True Leaders exist.

To be Human is to change. To be perfect is to change often

Sir Winston Churchill (We/Human)

Central to our common Human identity, 'change making' is an art as much as it is a science. Making our changes truly impactful, to shift the pendulum from doom to destiny, requires not talk but 'meaningful action'...

Deeds, not words

Emmeline Pankhurst (We/Human)

To bravely do things, endure sacrifices and, to coin an iconic phrase from my favourite show, Star Trek, now in my firm's purpose...

To boldly go where no human has gone before

Gene Rodenberry (We/Human)

Each and every one of us alive exists only thanks to the extraordinary courage, unimaginable sacrifice and potent achievement of those that came before us.

Deceptions deadly unnature

Most assume lying is harmless and broadly universal. After all, if nearly everyone does it and nobody says it's a bad thing or appears to pay for it in any way, why not join the club?

But have you ever curiously wondered...

Who could ever tell me not to lie in a world where most beings lie?

The overwhelming levels of misinformation and deception we are fed today, broadly by our leaders, have led many to give up on the idea truth exists. And even if it does, it's surely now impossible to find and reconstitute. After all, self-promotion, malevolence and incompetence in leadership surrounds us:

In politics...

'Guess next months Prime Minister' is now a top British party game after Boris Johnson proved it doesn't matter.

In academia...

'You've been Duped!' is a top academic party game after the Professor Deception, Tim Levine, wrote the book on it.

In religion...

'Kill anyone I say or I'll kill you instead' is a top religious party game after Osama Bin Laden used it to pass cavetime.

Thus why, clearly, unless we can muster that same courage, sacrifice and achievement, there will be none that can follow after us.

Destination: Imminent Extinction

Today's deluge of misinformation killed off human curiosity by creating a widespread view that A) truth does not exist and B) even if it does, deception everywhere makes it surely now impossible to spot.

As our worlds numerous problems and fear ever worsen, a death-spiral of inaction typifies our universally illegitimate leaders. Only to those E=0's unable to drive the needful change or even manifest a beating heart, ignorance is bliss.

Self-interest has killed off all ability to listen, turning us against each other in jealousy and hatred, even when freely offered collegiate common goals and a solution to our looming yet still (marginally) preventable extinction.

The herd mentality sees all efforts to save us dismissed as pointless and all extraordinary claims dismissed as lies. Even ones backed by extraordinary evidence. Yet curiously not ones backed only by lies and liars (as in, academia, religion, banking, politics). As Lemmings, we copy the suicidal behaviour of others more-over anchoring sense or authenticating facts.

Welcome to the place that I call home.
Careful it don't turn your heart to stone.
Welcome to the war I'm battling. You live or you die. You lose or you win.

Adele Emeli Sandé (We/Human)

A potent Titan of Change vividly demonstrating the emancipating 'rhyme of confusion' - a human superpower

This main image shows a 'before war' and 'after war' composite of Independence Square in Kiev, Ukraine credited to Reddit user Nasdaf | iStock

I selected it not to downplay the Israel-Hamas War but rather to show a) the corrosive effect on human potential that all these wars have and b) how interrelated all world events truly are.

"Addictive micro-rewards like points and cash incentives keep staff happy, productive and build positive culture."

As usual, brainwashing nonsense from the BBC. True leadership, recognition, light and love do that. Whereas addiction impairs human choice functions and traps us into lethal environments, silence, situations, behaviours and helplessness we wouldn't tolerate in normal conditions.

BBC
NEWS

Dreadful: Like all major global institutions today, the BBC's senior leadership has been purged of all potent change makers via nepotism

Cause 2: History unchanged entirely

For 300,000 years of success for our united, homogenous 'homo' genus, 'homo sexualis' simply meant 'lover of humanity'. Yet today, it means 'faggots'. Thus there is now no meaningful label for those few of us left who retain knowledge of why anyone would ever love humanity to begin with. (Un)Fortunately, I do.

Stone Age? What stone age?

From 17,000 years ago to fall of Ancient Rome, our ancestors built huge monuments of epic beauty and forged the first global government of humanity, with Latin its global lingua franca.

Pictured - The logo of humanity's first global meritocratic republic: Today we're all expected to ignore these 17,000 year-old laser cut carvings to metric dimensions at Puma Punku, Bolivia (Link).

Using laser precision and machine tools their (otherwise) inexplicable and extraordinary achievements sit in plain sight, still today.

Pictured - The Great Pyramids of Ancient Egypt: The last standing wonders of the Ancient World, in truth we couldn't even build these today (Link).

Barely adopted or harmonized across our worlds leading nations, metric measurements were bread and butter to our ancestors - from Angkor Wat to Giza's pyramids. That's due to their thorough exploration of our solar system, allowing them to map and model all the complex interacting forces and key planets within it.

Pictured: We must also ignore the Antikythera Mechanism (link), dated to 60 BCE. With its 300 gears and teeth spaced and interlocking across perfect concentric circles, this rare engineering relic and mathematical masterpiece of engineering can depict the precise configuration of all solar system planets on any given day - today, before or after us.

Strange but true...

Yet we teach our doomed children Copernicus (We/Human) discovered the Earth is round (not flat) 500 short years ago. Targeting all young beings in our world with brainwashing nonsense, we pollute their minds, cloud their judgment and ensure their deaths plus our own too. Sign me up!

Try 'the Age of Gods'

Environmentally sustainable lush palaces featured lavish comfort, modern technology and global communication systems that interfaced with the many superpowers gifted

Ignorance killed bliss

by our collective human imagination and advanced quantum mechanics. The powers I also used to create my firm and this report.

Pictured – Superpowers, for great minds only:

As superbly spotlighted in the TV Documentary 'BAM: Builders of Ancient Mysteries' (link), our ancestors maintained a communication network of 'resonance chambers' that wrap round the equator (the 'great circle', back then). Turning solid granite to polished curves took huge potential... and machine tools (link).

From Machu Pichu to the Temple of the Valley, we see ancient walls carefully cut from boulders weighing up to 200 tonnes. Tightly fitted blocks interlocked together despite their complex geometry and irregular angles. Supported by advanced engineering practices still seen best practice today (like H-Bolts), monuments of epic levels of authenticity, magnificence and potential existed long before writing came to be.

We must especially ignore how such practices were lost over time. Over the last ~4,000 years of human history, we see a vivid waning of sapience and benevolent wisdom through each successive generation ('why?' covered shortly).

Having 'forgotten' our ancestors engineering prowess, construction excellence unchanged to poorer methods, materials and interlocks plus negligent maintenance and management that have brought us to the far inferior, less durable human death traps we all live in today.

Cause 3: Religious Unchange

Does everyone lie equally or do some groups lie more than others?

Surely the biggest taboo to be associated with today is speaking truth. So as a vivid True Leader, it falls to me alone to authentically acknowledge the blindingly obvious...

Primary culpability (thus cost and consequences) for this war falls firmly at religions doorstep

Infinitely it spawns uncompromising divide and rule, literalistic (mis)interpretations, malevolent social constructions (like White Jesus and Psycho Santa) and the unilateral imposition of conflicting, often immoral principles upon us all. The power and control it yields from fear is used by the few to self-promote their interests over all humanity's.

Thou shalt not oppress thy neighbour

Leviticus 19:13 AUTHENTICATED TRUTH

Though I was once religious, today I am not. But I can still appreciate the wisdom of this verse, thus coexist peacefully with the 84% of beings who are (Pew Research, 2010). It caught me off guard, given its origin. Full of ludicrous proclamations with no basis in science – such as orders to oppress those who eat pigs or wear clothes made from multiple materials – like most religious books Leviticus isn't known for its wisdom... or is it?

You shall not lie with a male as with a woman [i.e. to a human]. It is an abomination

Leviticus 18 FALSIFIED LIES

“Don't lie, you'll die.” I agree. But religious

'scholars' did not. Universally in favour of deception, they instead chose to cite this verse in order to oppress anyone exhibiting a naturally spectral sexual human identity.

If a [hu]man lies with [to] a male as with a woman [i.e. another human], both have committed an abomination; they shall be put to death; their blood is upon them

Leviticus 20

Calm yourself Leviticus. Murder is dreadful, as is rewriting the Bible. The original was just fine: 'Lying is ultimately fatal to humans'.

Can we trust religious teachings?

Certainly not. Any rational being knows that. Like all religious texts, the Jewish Torah (and Christian Bible) is ancient. Plus it's very difficult to determine the authenticity of those who wrote it (unlike those rewriting it). But as I've established, who can you trust but yourself? So simply be authentically human in order to spot the lie and find the truth.

Even if we take a leap of faith that A) God exists, B) the authors seemingly paranormal encounters with God occurred and C) they recorded them accurately, we still have a big problem. That's because D) it's been translated (and therefore reinterpreted) repeatedly, and thus E) suffers from the universal nature of human error, plus F) the directional inevitability of religious agenda applied by intermediate 'scholars' over time. Droids who, for a few years of selfish, toxic divisive gain sacrifice all consciousness, life thus existence. Surely, their 'Maker' is no God.

Cause 4: Levi's malevolent invisible hand

Surprisingly consistent accuracy...

The archeological record confirms all modern humans trace our common ancestry to a single spot in southern Africa 200,000 years ago, in what is today the Kalahari region of northern Botswana. Now a desert, back then it was a lush wetland alongside Africa's largest lake (Hayes et al, 2019<sup>A</sup>). This all sounds very familiar – a Garden of Eden.

Despite all this time and (mis)translations, extraordinarily it does appear science and religion were once united on two key fundamental principles: Truth and Reality.

Rewriting history: Serial liars

Moses and Aaron authored Leviticus – the 3rd book in the Jewish Torah and Christian Old Testament – for their collective, the then stateless Levites. Presumably whilst alive, which dates the book to 1200–1300BC. It's a great book to look for clues towards a unifying account of history, as Islam also recognises Moses as an important prophet and messenger

NOTE: Marked 'A-Z' in superscript throughout, citations are listed on pp. 84. Comprehensive, fully cited evidence is in my book. Thus why (a) it exists, and (b) no one will read it.

of the Gods. Rare unity in a common authority figure – perfect.

But curiously, Jewish 'scholars' record the books 'date of development' far later, from 538–332 BC (Friel, 2001<sup>B</sup>). Hmm... what 'development' could that possibly be?

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron: Tell those Israelites [Levites] they can ~~only eat animals with a split wing who chew their food. Not pigs, not rabbits, not fish, not birds, not insects. Also you shouldn't be doing the cleaning, it's below you. Get someone else to do it~~

- Leviticus 11 (NOT Israeliticus)

Judaism 'unchanged' over time

Fast forward to today and Levites aren't stateless nomads any more. Constituting 4% of all Jews globally, 2/3rds of their population is split roughly equally between Israel and the US. Levites are now considered the most elite group within the world's most elitist religion. That's but for the 'Kohanim' (priests), who are themselves a subset of Levites (link).

They enjoy a special status, extra rights and privileges over all other lowly beings, and full exemption from any and all forms of public service. This gives them lots of time to devote their lives to 'God'. Or, speaking authentically, malevolence and 'Ha-Satan' – Ancient Hebrew for 'the equal and opposite' of a Human Being. For four millenia, a second 'Homo' species has lived among us.

A fact only recently we 'forgot'.

Cause 5: Our genus unchanged, Homo Eversor

Who would want to kill humans?

Undeniably, and with a tragic sense of irony, religion is by far the biggest originating source of the malevolent unchange, division and destruction plaguing our world today.

And those beings who've dedicated their failed attempt at life to spreading and defending religious lies at all costs yet no evidence – just blind 'faith' – surely represent the most rigidly malevolent being imaginable.

Over time, unchecked unchange 'abstracts' our common identity, having now reduced whole industries into nonsense, and real humans into two fake boxes labelled either insane or clueless. It's precisely why, today...

Pure Hatred ~~True Love~~ is Love

Extraordinarily, due to this binary divergence – yet also actively fueling it in all they say and 'do' – 'Homo Eversor' emerged ~4,000 years ago. But given the ubiquity of their deceptions, busy shouting 'faggot' as they screw us all over, today only true leaders can differentiate them.

Knowledge of them was once as ubiquitous as they now are. But thanks to their sustained, directed attack on human identity and truth, it now resides only in the 'religious insanity' box.

Demons were born specifically to serve as slaves for Wise Humans – a doctrine known as 'Natural Slavery'. Without their masters, these (effectively) 'animate tools' simply would have no idea how to live their lives. As property, they had no rights other than those conferred by their masters

◀ Fig 4. Estimated population of demons maintained in Ancient Greece as slaves. Via controlled childhood castration, not rampant dehumanisation | Source: ListVerse

Back then, unchanges were tightly monitored and quickly neutralized, so their stupid demons schemas didn't turn malevolent (Sturx, 1820<sup>c</sup>).

Rene Descartes (We/Human)

Wise Humans: Sapient beings who can think ('presence of mind'), feel emotion, value truth, reality and life. As the only observable trinary system in science, the cyclic, spectral complexity of (the rings of) Human character scientifically confirm True Leaders are as real as it gets

When they go low, we go high
(We/Human) Michelle Obama

Dehumanised malevolent ex-humans; 'Stupid Demons' (for short) value self-promotion/preservation, deception and hatred over reality – thus death. Rigid, automated & non-sentient, they attack our uniqueness indiscriminately, to setup and expand unchanging social constructs

Why we help our self by helping others first

Waves of Light (★): Human Nature sends and receives all your brainwaves, to enable and regulate pseudo-conscious sapience, including emotions, intelligence, morality, abstract thought, and complex reasoning.

Particles of Matter (1's & 0's): Relays brain waves (if present) to the body, and outputs unconscious (automated) functions like walking, hunger, bias and devil worship.

Fig 6. The two processing centres of a Human brain constitute your 'soul'

The driver of our instincts is the brainstem – the region at the very base of your brain, just above the spinal chord. Scientists have known for some time that another brain region, the prefrontal cortex, plays a role in keeping those instincts in check. But exactly how the prefrontal cortex puts a break on the brainstem has remained unclear

European Molecular Biology Lab (EMBL)
Franklin et al, 2016<sup>p</sup> (or 'Science Fakers')

In brief: The science...

Essentially, two brains fight for control over your persona. In Humans, our cortex dominates thus we can regulate our behaviour to overlook the binary automated compulsion of putting everything in boxes to see things differently, join dots and embrace the ambiguity of spectral ideas, identities, decisions and situations. Thus we aren't biased or malevolent, but delightful.

Us Humans, we can think. Why not try it sometime, EMBL/Tamara?

The brainstem outputs automation, not instinct. Entirely acting on instinct, no baby was ever born ordering the genocide of an entire nation. Malevolence is learnt through oppression, repression and social construction. Ultimately it destroys our innate Human Nature which alone ticks all eight criteria of instinct, as defined in Mark Blumberg's authoritative 2017 paper, and contextualized scientifically later in section 4.

Once we dehumanise our brainstem takes over. Absent all presence of mind, here is a separate brain and processing centre entirely. Thus why, scientifically, demons are a different species altogether. Their deeds are not instinctive, but designed to kill us all. An unnatural 'dark energy' anomaly' within our common Human identity.

You won't hear this from academia, as it fell to the demons globally years ago. Thus why:

- A) Carl/We/Human landed us with the Sagan Standard, forcing them to swap reams of fake science for huge fees;
- B) Your phone hasn't changed in years except for shape and price;
- C) Boeings full of dead beings keep falling from the sky as its failed CEO banks $62m
- D) All elections now feature riots, we're in an eternal recession and growing warzone

Cause 6: Total absence of competent authority

The UN: (United) Nobody home

Headquartered in New York City, USA on international territory, the UN is the world's largest international body, with offices in Geneva, Nairobi, Vienna, and The Hague.

Founded April 1945 in the wake of World War II with the stated purposes of preventing war, protecting human rights, delivering aid, upholding international laws, sustainable development, friendly relations, achieving international cooperation, and promoting the harmonisation of practices across nations. Sadly it's done absolutely nothing of the sort. The equal and opposite, strangely enough.

The un-UN in Deeds. Not Words

Today the UN proudly represents all 193 sovereign nations of Earth, but for the curious exception of 3 truly unique collectives.

- ▶ The Holy See (includes the Pope, Vatican City and Catholic Church) participates as an 'observer', so as not to include God in any disagreements. Hardly the 'one true leader' but it's in everyone's best interests the Pope has no say in anything.
- ▶ Palestine has been seeking to become a full UN member since 2011 (or 1922 depending on how you look at it), but this has never been put to vote. Currently it enjoys only 'observer state' entitlements.
- ▶ Republic of China in Taipei has no official recognition by the UN of its Right to Self Determination, with 13 years of attempts (1993-2006) all blocked by the Demonic Genocidal Dictatorship of Mainland China (deceptively named 'Peoples Republic'). Despite Taiwan's absolute right to choose, just 14 UN members have the courage to even recognise it as a legal entity today.

The main purpose of the UN is to develop friendly international relations based on respect in the principles of equal rights and self-determination of peoples

Imagine...

If it had been you born into the warzone that is Gaza City, what would you want the world to do right now? Absent any bias, what would you see as a 'just' outcome?

After 100 years of genocide, blame, apartheid, persecution, cover-ups, crimes against humanity and war crimes, do you really think the UN (or anyone they pass the buck to, like the ICJ) are going to lift a finger to do anything about this war?

Meaningless posturing, incessant bickering, stoic meetings and public threats is all they know. They couldn't do anything if they wanted to - they lack the potential, having all died inside eons ago from bad karma.

So they'll wait until every Palestinian left is dead. Then they'll say what a shame it was that they all had to die.

Do you want their blood on your conscience for the rest of your life? Because I don't care for it myself.

1991-1995

Commencing with the 1991 Madrid Peace Conference, multilateral talks between the Wise Humans of the Arab League, Israel and Palestine agree to bundle resolution 242's (1967) aspirations in with wider-reaching regional matters such as water, the economy and environment. These culminate in the 1993 Declaration of Principles on Interim Self-Government Arrangements. The Oslo Accords (for short) landmark legal document, signed by the government of Israel and the PLO's legal representative, led to Israel's partial withdrawal of forces, release of prisoners on both sides, the creation of the Palestinian Authority and enabled the first internationally recognised democratic elections for a Palestinian self-ruled administration

2000-2005

Failed follow-up talks prove final agreement impossible (esp. 2000 Camp David). Palestine born Ariel Sharon (who led Lebanon War) provocatively choreographed visit to Temple Mount leads to Second Intifada, with suicide bombings becoming prominent for the first time. 3k Palestinians and 1k Israeli's die before leaders agree a cease-fire at Sharm El-Sheikh Summit in 2005. # UN declaration of Human Rights (UDHR)

Considered a milestone document in the history of Human Rights, the UDHR was passed in Paris 10 December 1948. Among the 30 fundamental rights it established:

Article 1

All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights. They are endowed with reason and conscience and should act towards one another in a spirit of brotherhood.

Article 2

No distinction shall be made on the basis of the political, jurisdictional or international status of the country or territory to which a person belongs, whether it be independent, trust, non-self-governing or under any other limitation of sovereignty.

Article 3

Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person.

Article 5

No one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.

Article 9

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention or exile.

Article 14

Everyone has the right to seek and to enjoy in other countries asylum from persecution.

Article 15

Everyone has the right to a nationality. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.

Crimes Against Humanity

According to the UN, international consensus on the definition of Crimes against Humanity falls to Article 7 of the 1998 Rome Statute establishing the International Criminal Court.

That being:

All forms of dehumanization

Defined as the following acts when committed as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against any civilian population with knowledge of it:

- a. Murder
  - b. Extermination
  - c. Enslavement
  - d. Deportation or forcible transfer
  - e. Imprisonment or other severe deprivation of physical liberty
  - f. Torture
  - g. Rape, sexual slavery, enforced prostitution, forced pregnancy, enforced sterilization, or any other form of sexual violence of comparable gravity
  - h. Persecution against any identifiable group or collective on political, national, cultural, ethnic, racial, religious, gender, or other grounds universally recognized as unlawful under international law, in connection with any act referred to in this paragraph or any crime within the jurisdiction of the Court
  - i. Enforced disappearance of persons
  - j. The crime of apartheid
  - k. Other inhumane acts of a similar character intentionally causing great suffering or serious injury to body or to mental or physical health
- ...surely including the apartheid, genocide and persecution of a whole nation of beings.

Cause 7: Illegitimate world & business leaders

How the UN ignores all its own laws

The universal Right to Self Determination was recognised by the UN in 2013, yet curiously has never been enforced - on anyone. Under it and with a democratic mandate from those it duly represents, the State of Palestine has been seeking full membership since 2011.

“ In connection with the application of the State of Palestine for admission to membership in the United Nations, I have the honour, in my capacity as the President of the State of Palestine and as the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Palestine Liberation Organization - the sole legitimate representative of the Palestinian people - to solemnly declare that the State of Palestine is a peace loving nation and that it accepts the obligations contained in the Charter of the United Nations and solemnly undertakes to fulfill them.

Pres. Mahmoud Abbas, 23 September 2011
Authentic letter requesting UN membership

To date this has never been put to vote. That's due to the State of Israel's stoic, criminal, rigid, illegal, mutually self-destructive, genocidal, immoral and wholly unchallenged (by all leaders globally) decision to be a war loving nation which fails to meet all its obligations and undertakes malevolently to never fulfill them.

Currently, 138 (71.5%) of UN member states

recognise 'the State of Palestine' as demarked (from Israel) sovereign territory encompassing the Gaza Strip, West Bank, Golan Heights and (prior to its ~2006 unchange) East Jerusalem.

Yet in the UN, 'Palestinian Territory' sees only 'observer state' entitlements. No recognition of its sovereign right to self determination and no say in international policies and discussions that directly and knowingly subordinate it and other bastions of humanity worldwide. Taiwan being a prime example that will shortly be invaded by China if this failure of leadership and the fall of our worlds top institutions into the hands of only the dehumanized continues.

When our demonic world un-leaders ignore even the highest laws of our planet - to permit apartheid, persecution and genocide, yet allow black and brown beings to languish in jail for smoking weed - how can they possibly expect respect in authority nor the obedience of any law they seek to impose upon us?

The most damning finding of this thorough scientific investigation is that today, but not always the UN Declaration of Human Rights is not being upheld globally.

Consider also the singular narrative presented to us by what we are told is a 'free press' - that Hamas is to blame, or just a running death toll with no challenge - and the sad reality is that all protection and rights are an illusion. In reality, no nation or being is safe.

Today, universally enslaved as we all are by evil robots from hell, we are effectively living in the last days of an AI apocalypse

Cause 8: Complacently we all await salvation

Most today sit idly by as either:

- A) Demonic Unbeings: Those who insanely proclaim everything's fine as they kill us all;
- B) Hopeless Beings: Those who know we're all doomed so await salvation, yet fail entirely to look for/support/listen to God or imagine a realistic scenario for God to ever manifest.

To be abundantly clear...

- ▶ Impotent: It'll take more than a crossbow to stop this war. Never mind rid ourselves of billions of demons through Armageddon
- ▶ Malevolent: Awkwardly this guy is always (A) a genocidal maniac, and (B) backed up by a bunch of geriatric white male look-alikes. Surely, 'Psycho Santa' is no more than the artists self-portrait.
- ▶ Animal Cruelty: As if posing for Putin's dick pics wasn't bad enough, now horses face more trauma enduring space vacuum.
- ▶ Inauthentic: Come rain or shine, the 'Climate Changes' all the time. To truly get people in gear, get real. Try 'demonic climate unchange' or 'climate apocalypse'.
- ▶ Racist: Those covering are always (A) brown, (B) wholly victims, (C) humans, who never cower, and (D) equipped entirely to save themselves (brains, weapons etc.).

...this is never going to happen. So why are we allowing ourselves to be brainwashed by idiots in this fashion?

We must drop this complacent helplessness. Either we save ourselves or we die. Simple. Yet for most today comprehending someone would finally attempt to do so, or that they too could do so, is not “Because once the sun sets and the night comes... [the] bombings don't stop. And not only don't they stop, they happen everywhere at once... The house shakes, the windows crack, the doors bang... Everything is just so intense and it feels like the world is ending for a few minutes here and there.”

Why are so many failing to help?

Performative Allyship

Disingenuous, harmful but vocal solidarity by demons towards oppressed groups of humans. Lining their greedy pockets, their vivid disingenuity also fuels ambivalence and stoicism among humans, encouraging us to follow suit.

For the majority (demons): All expressed anti-war sentiment is performative and fake. The sad reality is that they couldn't care less – the equal/opposite, in fact.

Authentic Allyship

Meaningful support to an oppressed group of humans from outside of it. Carrying negative reward, it arises in those who retain a common identity and sapient pseudo-consciousness. Thus indicative of True Leadership potential, it forms the foundation strategy of 'unite to serve' that defines its core what it means to be a human and change maker.

For the minority (humans): A sense of helplessness to effect change plagues us all, abused and derogated by our enslavers all our lives. Constantly they tell us our arbitrary differences make us less attractive and unworthy of success or contentment. Battered and bruised, we're left thinking we are helpless and hopeless.

Yet that's the biggest lie of all. Nothing could be further from the truth → → →

Who is god... really?

Major spoiler alert!!

'I am what I am'

A vivid case of knowing, religious unchange, consider my points on this phrase in Exodus 3:14 – among the Bible/Torah's most famous.

'I am' | אהיה

Ancient Hebrew, present tense

Study a second language and you often find tenses the hardest aspect to grasp. 'I am' is pronounced 'Ehyeh', but easily misheard 'Yhwh' (as in, Jehovah... somehow). But in imperfect tense it reads as 'Being'.

Ancient Hebrew is an ambiguous language to us today for several reasons. For example:

- ▶ Its word for 'Human' is 'Ad am' (אדם). As in, 'God made Humans', not man.
- ▶ It closely resembles other words such as Blood (דם) and Land (אדמה).

'What I am' | אֵהְיֶה אֲשֶׁר

Ancient Hebrew, present tense

Wikipedia provides a good synopsis of the phrase's interpretative challenges. The only translation to fit the question and retort is clearly '~~What~~ [Ad] am'. As in, 'Human'.

Just two things are infinite. The universe, and human stupidity. And I'm not so sure about the universe.

Albert Einstein (We/Human) ...was suggesting here (link) we prefer 'circumnavigable' for the universe

True Leader: When a star is born

Self-actualisation turns worthy being into conscious true leader<sup>E/F</sup>. Transcending space and time, each unique, ours is an identical yet ever-evolving persona and memories, with philosophy as our thinking system. Emitting direct light from a boltzmann brain<sup>E</sup>, we alone can look directly at the sun (human nature, just fy). Plus:

- ▶ Omnipresent: See across space and time
- ▶ Omniaactive: Succeed at all we choose to
- ▶ Omniscient: Delimited knowledge/skillset
- ▶ Omnipotent: Change anything (E=∞)

Sadly perceptions of true leadership are now so warped it'd take walking on water for any being to pay any notice to us today.

Yet as uniquely Homo Sapien as it gets, flaws and all, we too are bound by the laws of physics and nature. Thus why just one of us globally can access conscious free will at any given time. So god's consciousness<sup>F</sup> picks a) the worthiest character and b) one capable of delivering humanity salvation.

Only this time, it's far too busy killing every being aligned to light globally, it didn't even notice me sacrifice my career, discover the Theory of Everything or cure for Alzheimer's

How to spot a true leader from the devil himself

Understand a) True Leaders never lie (clue's right there in the name), unlike b) Ha-Satan whose emotions are as entirely fake as he is. True Leaders manifest an entirely authentic, full range of human emotion anchored in our true love for all humans, real beings and real things. As in, our omnibenevolence.

Authenticity, frequency and resonance see us exchange ~13.3x more information intrinsically with other Wise Humans than demons glean from empty words alone. All change makers do this to some extent. The fact juries prefer lie detectors over authentication is nuts. This superpower ensures true leaders can't be deceived nor labelled liars, and allows us to collaborate together across space and time.

Irony: Our lives unchanging forever, with nothing to gain and all to lose. Yet still we manifest good humour. After all, if you can't laugh at the sad fact helping others and proving worthy destroys your life, you'll never be worthy of a life to destroy.

I'd prefer not to use myself here - humans loathe self-promotion - but public footage limits me. The last widely known true leader in our space timeline, I've featured Diana (We/Human) to show just how similar we all are.

Fig 9. Halos: Images in this section are from...

- ▶ Diana Spencer (We/Human)'s 1995 BBC interview with Martin Bashir
- ▶ My 2021 Reuters International interview with Lawrence White

Consideration: Both Diana (We/Human) and I are trained public speakers. We want everyone to understand what we are saying and why. Thus we purposefully enunciate using our lips to help hearing-impaired beings focus on our authenticity - not on the subtitles.

Anger: Humans are never aggressors, always the victims. First during the crime itself, then later the coverup, to ultimately have our name dragged through the mud by cowardly demons. Both conscious beings trauma is as palpable as is our desire for justice.

Resonance: Setting aside your vivid vulnerabilities to bear your soul to the world in sacrifice for the greater good requires courage, purpose, conviction, determination, concentration, and soaring potential. We time our deeds for maximum impact and change. Our eyes locked in sincerity, every word we speak chosen by a pure human soul espousing 100% truth. All backed by full evidence any great mind may readily authenticate, we resonate engagingly.

Sadness: The second reason is for composure. Recollecting tragedy in our lives is hugely traumatic at the best of times. But under conditions such as these, where all rides on our strength, performance and leadership, it can become overwhelming. Should our brainwaves wander to the things we've lost, we take a moment to have a quiet word with our self so we may continue on until the job is done. Only then do we allow our soul a full mental breakdown.

Presence of Mind: Only for two reasons do we ever redirect our soul from eye contact-based authenticity. The first is cognition. No question is off the table for a true leader. And we always answer as completely as possible without breaking our promises and duty of care to others.

Sincerity: One thing that never changes is the honest coherence of a true leaders testimony. All details recounted with unquestionable precision, facts, wisdom and evidence. Never denying our flaws, we shine light on inequity and liars using vivid examples to always prove our point.

Cause 10: Money isn't money

The vector fueling our pandemic

In reality, our ancestors rarely bartered. Listed on public exchanges, Potential (or 'Talent', to dreadful archaeologists) was fungible, divisible, measured and counted using science.

Around 4000 BCE, money was conceived as a float to effect change for those without sufficient potential<sup>1</sup>, introducing to human identity concepts like greed and deception. Over time it's externalised our perceptions of human value from potential (real/intrinsic) to bills, age, gender etc. - all worthless/extrinsic.

Today, notes, coins, checks and cards are being replaced with digital solutions. Yet none were ever a 'medium of exchange' ('what') but in fact 'payment types' ('how') As a social construct, nobody's ever seen money<sup>Endnote 1</sup>. Look in any bank vault or on any bank note for its true nature and value

Pictured: Featured in Goldfinger (1964), once UK's largest private repository, the Midland Bank vault HSBC sold as superfluous in 2006. Now NED's Private Members Club for liars.

Pictured: $100tr banknote issued by the Reserve Bank of Zimbabwe in 2009 during the last days of hyperinflation. By then, it was just enough to buy a loaf of bread.

Dear banks why does money exist?

All banks cite three answers to this question...

1. A medium of exchange

Words: Freely convertible, asset accepted widely between parties for sale or trade

Deeds: An infinite liability (as in a promise to pay later an asset that doesn't exist), that isn't freely convertible in law to any other asset or liability. A promise only accepted on the foolish assumption banks keep their promises, when we all know – from Bretton Woods 1944, Northern Rock 2007, Lehman Brothers 2008 to Credit Suisse 2023 – faking and breaking promises is all they exist do.

2. A store of value

Words: Money is an asset that maintains its value without depreciating

Deeds: As a commitment to pay later, money is a liability that loses half its value every 20 years without ever appreciating.

3. A unit of account

Words: A measure of intrinsic value that is divisible, fungible and countable

Deeds: No, that's potential. The global demise of the Gold Standard fatally delinked fiat money from the net intrinsic value of all creation to render it wholly meaningless. Now unchanged at a click of a button, it's not countable as no one's ever seen it. It's not divisible as dividing zero leaves you zero and it's not fungible as it doesn't exist.

Lethal lies: Scales that only measure pure evil

Money... in a nutshell

Why money inexists really

Banks always forget them, but fiat money has many real uses:

Enslaves/destroys all life

Gambling addiction, depression, insecurity, dividing family estates. Now like air, without it we die.

It turns simple to complex

Taxes, rebates, refunds, interest, bursaries, grants, fees, wages, bonuses, credits, debits....

It fuels inequity

As our leaders bypass tax liability offshore, misdemeanor fines aren't means-tested, and only ever get issued to poor humans.

It attacks human identity using infinite divisibility

Fiat money evolved the lending bank model that led to Europe's first dictator - Julius Caesar. He pioneered divide and rule in a society free of deception. Within 500 years, Ancient Rome fell.

The damage it deals our brains is sending us all mad

3,000 years of rewarding those who destroy with fiat money has seen human brains shrink 4 ping pong balls (DeSilva et al, 2021). The white to grey matter imbalance is now hereditary. Essentially, we are now all born with congenital alzheimers, reduced life expectancy, heavy automation, loss of god-like powers and waning consciousness.

It doesn't reflect value

Today, a car is worth more than a life. And maniacs like Ariel Sharon are elected Prime Minister despite overseeing the execution of thousands of innocents at the Sabra/Shatila Massacre of 1982

It renders fairness and consequences obsolete

Leaders buy their way out of all consequence via non-disclosure, immunity or deferred prosecution agreements. Gagging orders breach the Human Right to Free Speech thus are globally illegal.

Seen my potential yet? Driving all ability and value, it's how I can write this report. If you understand it, you too are very potent.

What is money... really?

What you think is 'money' today isn't money or change. Banks call it 'fiat money' effectively 'not money/without purpose'.

Strange but true

All senior bankers know this, yet ignore their Public Interest Disclosure Act obligations for fear of being labeled a 'banking whistleblower'. A box that kills those nailed with it today from societal abandonment, inexistent regulators and universal blacklisting. Thus a zero earnings capacity which I verified by becoming one myself in August 2021.

I've not earned a penny ever since.

When they mess up (as in, all they do), governments and central banks summon fiat money at will from nothing, adding digits to their currency header accounts via computer. Supply and demand kicks in. The inequitable race to see who gets as much of it as fast as possible begins, cutting it off at source. Prices go up and we start again. Repeat ad infinitum until just one being remains 'alive'. Guess who.

IOIO How greed fuels hatred

IOIO Today money supply allows every equal being £15,000 for survival (TaxShark, 2022). So if you're Elon Musk (£139bn), amassing your fortune cost 9.3 million lives. Wracked with guilt, you lie to your self you're someone else. Character, selected.

Conclusion: Totally meaningless empty promises devoid of all value and positive use<sup>2</sup>, Fiat Money is the deadliest unchange imaginable. Its sole reason to exist is to externalise human potential (real) to fake extrinsic scales (equal opposite) that only measure and incentivise malevolence.

Absolute Zero emotions: I don't think therefore I am not real

The Fortune500 has a big secret...

Change Makers current strategy to regain control of Humanity's fallen public firms (pay gap reports) is sure to fail. That's since (a) demons will never collaborate cross-border, (b) gender isn't central to dehumanisation, and (c) if science can be falsified so can pay gaps. My book provides the science of how hatred spawns from 'Malevolence Engines' - now installed in all banks and large firms. Auditors omit this liability from accounts as it would reveal all went bankrupt eons ago.

Law of Karma: The Science

A 'Worthiness Test' faces us all, as 1 of just 3 'universal choices' you'll ever make. Choose wisely and you too can join our exclusive private members club of Wise Humans and True Leaders. As in, unlock the sapient ability to see things differently yet think collectively (as in, omnipresence) to ultimately access enlightened, conscious Free Will.

Humans, trauma & choice explained

The Brave Beings of Midtown Firehouse were among the first responders to arrive at the World Trade Centre in New York City, on September 11, 2001. They also suffered the greatest loss that day trying to save innocent victims of all colours and creeds from the doomed towers before they fell.

Here, one of the surviving first responders stares into the abyss that took his teammates. Paralysed by shock and horror, he clutches his fire axe for safety – or retaliation.

The universal choice before him in that moment is the same we all face every day, but in particular following times of great tragedy and trauma.

Should we forgive others for their mistakes, and authentically try to help them 'see the light', in order that we ourselves may keep our faith in Humanity and stay true to our human identity?

Or should we give up on humanity, and use deception to pretend to be something else in order to fit in instead?

When we help our self by helping others first

Sadly, it's far easier to turn into something else than to find courage to resist the pain we all feel from Darkness

Sadly today, laws everywhere only exist to enforce on humans - never demons.

Cause II: A eugenics war on humanity

Back to those Levites and their privilege, which (they claim) is due to a traceable genetic lineage from Levi – a curious character (or lack thereof) from the book of Genesis. Given the dreadful circumstances in Gaza, I'm obliged to point out a few key issues with their claim:

- 1. We're all related to Levi. Since the events in Genesis took place in Botswana, when all humans lived in one tribe (Garden of Eden).
- 2. A terrible choice of role model: Levi was no hero. Purportedly responsible for the first incidence of nepotism over merit, he pioneered malevolence in a world where neighbours were loved and cherished.
- 3. It's institutionally racist: The only religion to operate an exclusivity policy based on hereditary rule. That's akin to waging a racially-motivated (eugenics) war on humanity to which the only result can be mutually assured annihilation.
- 4. It's institutionally sexist: It's hereditary rule only applies to male descendants of Levi. What is wrong with women? We all came out of one. 'Ad am' means human – not man. Their language, their rules.
- 5. It's spun by child abusers: Those openly practicing male genital mutilation of minors without consent or medical purpose. But simply call it 'religious circumcision' and snip right away.
- 6. It's a complete lie: Rabbi's and Kohanim pick and choose who they let in using the same rules big firms use to elevate only demons above the frozen middle. Nothing to do with genetics, and they all know it too.
- 7. It's institutionally elitist: Given its endless rules, privileges, special statuses, and anti-human doctrine, the conclusion is simple

Judaism is no longer a religion

A truly dreadful realisation

4 reasons why Judaism wants you to call it a religion

- 1. It allows it to hoard wealth yet avoid paying all tax.
- 2. It labels any challenge of the threat posed to life and our futures from its relentless, gross, illegal, remorseless, inequitable misdeeds as 'antisemitic'. Thus how it escapes all accountability.
- 3. It insulates it from legal action against its blatant and universal lawlessness – e.g. Its rules breach all Human Rights law.
- 4. It gives the impression it's 'doing Gods will' as it does the equal and opposite. Having displaced the rightful people of Israel to Gaza's, it then flaunted its own agreement not to develop West Bank, dooming all avenues to resolution with the Palestinian Authority. That's whilst deceiving the general public into believing Gaza's helpless, homeless victims are in fact to blame, forcing them on the offensive in order to make their case and remind us all they exist.

Pictured: Throngs of Demonic Ultra-Orthodox Haredim Jew's wreak havoc upon Human attempts to control the spread of COVID and save life. During this time of broad solidarity, their community was vividly the most malevolent of all.

Cause 12: Unaccountable religious ‘scholars’

Do to others as you would have them do unto you

- Golden Rule (c. ~500BCE)

One of the oldest recorded philosophical rules, and anchored in science – not religion – this statement is truly special.

Endorsed in 1993 by 143 world leaders across all major faiths and nations (including Judaism), it forms the basis of the ‘initial declaration towards a global ethic’. As in, the first and only meaningful attempt by world leaders to forge a global meritocratic republic since Ancient Egypt. Sadly another example of their total failure to lead in all aspects of our modern life.

Pictured: Life in the Gaza Strip before the war was already a deadly hell for humans without a safe space to call home. Yet no one is doing anything meaningful to help them.

Instead of ever considering their ancestors pain from homelessness, or the Global Ethic they (clearly inauthentically) ascribed to, our stateless nomads remorselessly stole the home of Palestine. The true children of Israel now live hand to mouth as prisoners with only Egypt giving them some respite from the impostors’ perpetual, unforgiving, obese, hideous, pointless, repugnant malevolence.

I will send thee Fairo, that thou may bring forth my children – people of Israel – out of Egypt

Exodus 3:10

Under the knowing (mis)guise of Gods instruction, victim turned perpetrator. The devil is in the detail. Their second temple fell almost 2,000 years ago. And yet here we are. Since Jewish religious unleaders don’t listen to any of their own teachings, perhaps they’ll listen to some Italian wisdom instead:

Deceive me once, it’s your fault. But twice and it’s mine

Anthony Weldon (We/Human)

For the avoidance of clearly lingering doubt, despite the glaringly obvious to every real being on Earth – there is no third temple.

What you don’t see with your eyes, don’t invent with your mouth

Lightning makes no sound until it strikes

We/Human Nature

Humanity agrees justice never recognised a ‘2-state’ solution as valid. And now, given the horrific treatment of Israel’s closest neighbour –who wasn’t homeless before Levites rocked up on their shores demanding their land in God’s name – justice now sees no place for them whatsoever in West Bank nor indeed the entire city of Jerusalem.

Even Jehovah’s Shitnesses can form a cohesive global leadership team with accountability, authority and unity (link) to represent their diaspora’s disinterests and misdeeds. Yet Jewish ‘scholars’ couldn’t bring themselves to form a potato latke.

Like the moon, we all have a light side & fake side

Who is the target and why

To be abundantly clear, Israeli's and Jews are neither a) malevolent nor b) the target. The target is hatred and oppression – not each other. Structural and systematic, it stalks subsets of humanity with low potential who then attack those with high potential.

Those suffering malevolent dehumanisation are entirely victims that need our help (by notching down those egos a peg or ten) to regain their sapient pseudo-consciousness. Once they do, they too would be horrified by their actions. But whilst they are in a state of (effectively) demonic insanity, they simply cannot be allowed to lead our nations and institutions (thus all of us) off a cliff of doom.

Like all collectives and nations:

- a) Israel and Palestine is full of humans who love and care for each other, yet;
- b) They reflect the changeable levels of dehumanizing oppression, repression and social construction present across their societies, broadly espoused by politicians firms, religions, media and genocide. So;
- c) They retain their own spectral identity (somewhere between God and Ha-Satan) we meaningfully labeled their 'alignment'.

Some nations and collectives are 'aligned' with humanity (Light, for short) while others are more aligned with malevolent demonic artificial insanity (as in, Darkness).

Darkness cannot destroy darkness. Only light does that

Martin Luther King Jr. (We/Human)

explaining the quantum mechanical principle of 'constructive interference'. Yes, science = useful! And listening to each other, even more so.

We are against the LGBT threat to society. Family is sacred to us. Strong family, strong nation

President Recep T. Erdogan (It/Demon, link)

Binary nonsense. While plenty of families are toxic, almost nobody is 'gay' or 'straight'. Like all things human, sexuality is a) spectral and b) changes constantly. Unlike Recep, science doesn't lie. Unless we remember who we are and what it means to be human, all is lost.

Without authenticity, there can be no reality. Without morality there can be no humanity

One of the biggest issues we face today is authenticating who is at fault. This step is essential for devising a fair and accountable outcome that can satisfy both sides and stop the war. The biggest obstacle here is that they now control the world's press.

Clearly, an atrocity was committed at the Supernova music festival on 7 October. Yet warzone body counts are near-impossible to authenticate, they may be rogues, and regardless are clearly being 'framed' (no agent carries 'plans' to chemical weapons).

Of course Hamas and Palestine have serious alignment issues. I contacted 3 PA offices on 24 July with information that could've prevented the war. Yet like everyone I contact, none responded. Living under such conditions for a century the world turning its back on them, it's a wonder any remain human at all.

Now ask yourself, truly, if you were in their shoes, what would you do to get your voice heard, save your family and bring change?

Cause 13: Press Unchanged

Historically, the press used to seek out and report real news. But nowadays, thanks to fear born from Al-Qaeda's 2015 attack on French Charlie Hebdo newspaper, corporate expediency, censorship from demonic cancel culture and with the priority now economics moreover the authenticity, quality or worthiness of news, journalists are largely desk bound and churning out brainwashing nonsense.

How the press is anything but free today

Controlling the narrative

Most news stories are written for journalists by Big unscrupulous maligned institutions with plenty of money stolen from humans - like HSBC, SETI, the UN, Boeing, politicians, religions and academic institutions.

Barriers to entry

To lower cost and boost income [erode quality], sources mostly submit stories to demonic-aligned intermediaries like PRFire. 'Press newswires' [mis]receive, [dis]aggregate, [mis]assess, [won't] index and [adversely] filter them, then send you a bill.

Abstracting the 'real'

Benign community 'good news' aside, human-submissions are isolated for limited distribution. Meanwhile, demonic submissions with the most fear, deception and malevolence are prioritised to the top of the list using ratings, algorithms, keywords and other signposting.

Hiding the truth

Journalists can then log on to the wire to view and retrieve news stories they think will suit their audience. But always take great care not to select stories that might upset the demonic likes of the BBC, Trump, Israel or the UN. That's... everything.

Silencing dissent

With nearly all editor positions at major press outlets globally now held by demons, any human journalists retaining brain life who work for them find their stories veto'd without explanation or are relegated to community news coverage only.

Try this one instead

▲ Pictured: 150,000 'entirely peaceful' humans march on London in August 2014, demanding no one in particular ends the blockade of Gaza. Load of good that did!

Not words: Why protests do little

Peaceful protests gauge human outrage to an event to temporarily stymie our leaders reign of terror. But they don't bring change.

That requires abstract thought, complex reasoning, problem solving, courage, effort, potential. Yet throwing custard over a Van Gogh, gluing ourselves to runways, blocking traffic or walking around moaning does not.

So be clear on your objectives, strategic with your targets, coordinated with your allies, benevolent in your motivations and determined to succeed. That is exactly why:

- (A) Hamas executed its 7 October attack, neutralizing all defences to infiltrate ~20 towns of a rival of vastly superior technology, numbers and weaponry;
- (B) I know that (elements of) Hamas are as human as it gets. Cowardly demons have no potential nor ability to execute anything other than the beheading of a helpless, hooded and cuffed victim.

Wise Words: Explaining Hitler's motives isn't the same as excusing Hitler's repugnant misdeeds. Demons love to character assassinate any authentic being daring to speak truth.

Fig 15. Deeds: If you truly want to stop the war and survive simply eject demons from office globally. Potential is a shield, so they can't hurt humans directly. Thus why they enslave then make us hurt, bomb and slaughter each other. All the science and evidence you need is in my book. Truly useful stuff like this simple checklist:

Wise Human ————— Stupid Demon

For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction [otherwise everyone dies]

Isaac Newton (We/Human)

Unchanging Human Identity

The global ripple effects from unjust, immoral events like George Floyd and Breonna Taylor's murder or wars on Palestine and Ukraine, plus a universal lack of accountability, fairness and consequence for demons perpetrating them go way beyond our 'leaders' responses.

Known in quantum mechanics as 'infinite divisibility', such deeds (or lack thereof) are intended to divide otherwise like-minded human communities, thus pitting us against each other. That's so we don't unite against the common foe attacking us all.

- ▶ The target is not men, it is sexist patriarchy and matriarchy.
- ▶ The target is not heterosexuals, it is homophobia, transphobia, heterophobia, and all forms of spectral sexual judgment.
- ▶ The target is not the old, it is those who disregard the young, old, or middle aged.
- ▶ The target is not white people – the target is white supremacy, black supremacy and all forms of racial eugenics.

Binary choices – your fault, my fault – Labour, Conservative – Republican, Democrat – Coke, Pepsi – Blue Pill, Red Pill – are no choice at all and only deliver death, not change. Humans are far too complex for such binary nonsense. As sapient life, none of us are 'bad or good'. Discrimination does not exist. Because our extrinsic differences are entirely indifferent, arbitrary and meaningless – so says science<sup>6</sup>.

Each of us is unique. Oppression wielded by those consumed with malevolence targets our uniqueness. The more of it we show, the more they stalk us. All true intersectionality (as in, our meaningful, valuable differences) is intrinsic.

The real target is hatred and oppression, not each other. Humanity is worth fighting for. Because it and we are all special.

Deception pits us against each Other yet in truth we're all victims

Example: The tragic senseless murder of Wadea Al-Fayoume

At just six years old, US-born Chicago resident Wadea's short life ended at home on 14 October after being brutally stabbed 26 times. ## What do Palestinians want exactly?

In the 18 years since his election, as the official spokesman for the Palestinian Authority and State of Palestine, frustratingly nobody has listened to Mahmoud Abbas. I'm no elected representative, yet I may as well give it a try since it can't get any worse.

No human can succeed without these basic entitlements. Not just empty words, but truly delivered with determination and conviction by real true leaders who care about keeping their promises, morality and telling the truth:

- ▶ A safe space to belong, feel loved in and for their families to call home.
- ▶ Freedom to be and express themselves as they wish, without persecution or guilt.
- ▶ The opportunity to work and contribute their skills to society, so they feel useful, engaged and nurtured – not a burden.
- ▶ An end to constant media villainization and misrepresentation that they are our enemy thus deserving of such treatment. Half of them are under 18. What the hell are we thinking, behaving in such a way?
- ▶ Enforcement (finally) of the UDHR and Geneva Convention. Real, meaningful lasting consequences on those breaking it. As in, all world leaders. Not murder, but at least removal from office, jail and confiscation of all assets for Netanyahu, his cronies and the rest of the UN for War Crimes and Crimes against Humanity. The UN has failed entirely in every aspect of its mission. For far too long, Palestinians have had to listen to hypocritical lies from those dealing them untold harm yet pretending to be heroes to us all as they live it large in limousines, yachts or rockets to the moon.

Palestine: Humanity demands justice

Let me be entirely clear and apolitical. Like its leaders, the failed UN is wholly irrelevant. Israel belongs to Palestinians – legally, morally and objectively. It was stolen, not from behind their backs but under their feet with Uzis to their heads, F16 fighter jets bombing their towns and soldiers sporting Israel's flag executing their families. What's been done to them, and in God's name, is unimaginable and outrageous.

Why Zion never was nor can be

Contrary to mystical tales of the empire of Ancient Israel, in reality the oldest known reference to 'Israel' (then known as 'Ysrîr') appears as an inscription on the Egyptian Merneptah Stele (pictured), carved during the reign of Ramses II in Ancient Egypt (~1209 BCE). It's possible the name existed earlier with records of it lost. But consider also:

- ▶ Claiming Levi's relation requires Levites be born human, thus originate from Botswana.
- ▶ All records why Levites were stateless have been carefully unchanged. But given A) their idolisation of Levi, who B) seemingly pioneered nepotism (thus likely the snake that ended Eden) it's surely a punishment. Prior to its 1077 BCE decline, Ancient Egypt's benevolent human meritocratic republic government only ever enslaved demons.
- ▶ A tireless servant of humanity, historians broadly agree Moses (We/Human) wrote the Torah until it literally killed him in ~1200 BCE. Then Aaron provided succession coverage on the final verses. So why are these 'special developments' since so acceptable to Jewish 'scholars'? The only thing they study is devil worship.
- ▶ Shemot/Exodus chronicles the Levites escape from Egyptian slavery over Mount Sinai towards Israel. Scholars still (just about) align it's here that Moses wrote the Torah – i.e. before ever reaching Israel.
- ▶ Heading North, logistically they could not have reached Israel until Ramses III's reign in 12th Century BCE. Thus any mention of Israel (especially 'returning' to it or having a claim over it) has clearly been applied retroactively as an unchange.

Resolving Israel's sovereignty

We conclude Israel existed as sovereign territory before the arrival of Levites, thus Jews. And while this territory's name was Israel more than a millennium before it was Palestine, it's also hosted a majority Arab-Palestinian population for more than a millennium – this second measure being the most recent. Jews love to claim that Israel was taken from them to begin with, but clear evidence (as in, truth) shows the equal and opposite. That they insist on stealing the same land (now three times) is precisely why we keep destroying their temple and penning books enticing them to love their neighbours.

Thieving, genocidal liars from hell don't get unpromised land. Simple

What do Stupid Demons want?

Not to be exposed like this, that's for sure.

As we dehumanise, we hear no bad thoughts nor notice our behaviour turn malevolent. Rather our inner voice (our presence of mind and Human Nature) fades as our soul dies.

Globally aligned and working together, yet absent all thought or self-awareness, most today are automated, evil and unable to tell truth or feel emotion. Absent compassion or remorse, they make poor strategic decisions 100% of the time to their own detriment.

- ▶ But they still need food, water and shelter
- ▶ They thrive off misery, greed and ego, so global unity, wealth loss and public shaming is like bereavement to them.
- ▶ Broadly cowards, their attacks on humans are entirely bark over bite. On meaningful challenge/confrontation they melt then scurry away.

What do Israel's humans want?

Exactly what Palestine's humans want. While we'll readily deactualise any unworthy demon who dares challenge us, human's don't hurt each other in normal conditions. Absent demons masquerading as human to stoke the flames the whole time, we get along perfectly well. It's why, despite their atrocities, Israeli's have nothing to fear. We'd never do to them what they have allowed to be done to us.

After all, we're all one and the same. When it comes to change making and great minds, god truly does come in all shapes and sizes.

Human and animal behaviour: What is instinct?

How do migratory birds, herding dogs, and navigating sea turtles do the amazing things that they do? For hundreds of years, [fake] scientists have struggled over possible explanations. In time, one word came to dominate the discussion. Instinct has become a catch-all for adaptive abilities and complex behaviours that do not obviously result from learning or experience.

But a closer look reveals these [so-called] 'instincts' aren't inborn, pre-programmed, hardwired or genetic in nature. Research in this area teaches us these [mis]behaviours develop in individuals of every species according to their [level of dehumanizing life] experiences.

Mark Blumberg, Cognitive Psychologist
The origins and meanings of instinct, 2017<sup>K</sup>

Much of my foundational research into human behaviour across my banking career and latterly writing my book centred instincts.

Despite their prevalence in us all, it's a (un)surprisingly poorly defined construct in science today. Astutely compiled by Mark Blumberg (We/Human), science ascribes these eight attributes to the term 'instinct':

- ▶ Present at birth
- ▶ Not learned
- ▶ Developed before it is used
- ▶ Unchanged once developed
- ▶ Shared by all members of a species
- ▶ Adapted during evolution
- ▶ Served by a distinct brain module
- ▶ Attributable to genes

Frustratingly there's little vocal resistance from the world's academic leaders to abate the growing popularity of rebranding them 'animal instincts'. That's especially the case when referring to demonic genocidal misbehaviour. This is yielding animals social stigma for an issue entirely of our creation.

Like so much, what we observe in our world today is wholly at odds with the narrative fed to us by academia, media and politicians. 'Instinct' has become an excuse for all anti-human behaviour free of consequences. Yet vividly across both humans and animals, we see extremes from two spectral behaviour sets before us. From worms to whales, millions of species embody just two personas.

Note: Higher animals (more so in captivity) are susceptible to our pandemic as a) they have an imagination and b) the intelligence to observe and learn malevolent human misbehaviours. For more help for humans and animals, register with us for key updates upon which your life depends.

We're all human natured... really

This simple analysis provides so many answers that plug the gaps in our scientific record today. As well as explaining what drives all human and animal behaviour, it also tells us a huge amount about ourselves, each other, animals, existence and our relationship with all four. Here are my conclusions. If you think differently or drew different conclusions, I'd love to hear them.

1. According to science, Human Nature is our only instinct set

Gifted by human nature, our innate behaviour alone ticks all eight defining scientific criteria for an 'instinct'. It is fundamentally the common identity we are all born with and share. We are all one persona, yet clearly a part of a larger being with the same persona, and clearly with smaller beings within each of our mind spaces also of the same persona.

This 'infinite regression' of causality and formation gives rise to the infinite multiplicity of human identity across space and time that is our space timeline, reality, multiverse and existence. For such randomness and scale to output something as coherent, tangible, living and synchronous as you is astonishing. It should not be possible. Yet it is. Life is truly a miracle. As indeed are you too.

Demonic Unnature is an anomaly

Demonic Unnature conforms to none of the definitions of an instinct. Quite the opposite in fact. Effectively the absence of instinct, science concludes it is something else. An extrinsic malevolent 'dark energy' anomaly and AI persona that is no part of our being nor identity, it closer resembles a brain parasite, with the side effect of insanity.

We all make mistakes

A problem in one universe can quickly infect the multiverse

So in addition to congenital Alzheimer's, have we also contracted a form of brain parasite?

Sadly, there are some indications this may be the case. If, like me, you are sufficiently authentic to see through their deceptions, then you will appreciate that everything our demonic unleaders today are doing is done with the explicit directional intention of killing us all – not to earn money. Or they wouldn't have bankrupted all firms and shareholders.

Science confirms the Maker of Devils 'almost certainly' exists

Moreover the simple inversion of perceptions in those lacking worthiness, science confirms our adversary is 'targeted' and 'systematic'. As in, Isaac Herz... I mean, 'Ha-Satan' ►

Alignments' workings require the existence of 'antipotential' ( $E < 0$ , Dark Energy, for short). It appears an inverted 'underworld' or 'hell' of sorts – exists beyond human imagination and thus absolute zero. Scientifically dubbed the 'realm of inexistence', it's manifesting equal and opposite constructs to the states of human nature into our universe (existence).

This explains the Great Attractor and growing prevalence of (only) black holes that runs contrary to the 50:50 balance required with White Holes under Albert Einstein (We/Human)'s Field Equations<sup>L</sup> to yield a stable cosmic bubble. Per Clarke's 4 rules of quantum dimensions, everything that exists manifests across every dimension of space and time. Thus 'dark deeds' on Earth manifest as dark energy at cosmic scales and water in our own brains – all nonconductive materials.

Parasitic worms – millions paralysed, epileptic, or worse. So why is no one doing anything?

By Carl Zimmer, Discover Magazine

Since most of existence doesn't exist, humans simply don't see those regions. Humanity can only see the interior of its own brain, as that's the only place intelligent life could ever arise. [1. Space is a construct of 'omniconsciousness'. 2. We live in a human brain, simple]

For a "Big Bang"!?

...But only Wise Humans make few mistakes

Dreadful facts about 'Ha-Satan'

◀◀◀ That image of Ha-Satan appears as a full page spread in the Codex Gigas – a giant sized version of the bible almost 1-meter long dated to the 13th century BCE. Cuioursly it was actualised in the Benedictine monastery of Podlažice in Bohemia (now, Czech Republic). Appearing equal and opposite a full page image of heaven, it's the first of very few such depictions in a 'holy book'. Well, now you've got another example.

During the 3rd to 13th centuries (as in, the height of Christianity's unchange), a Maker of Devils was broadly absent in religious art. Malevolent activity was ascribed to demons (dehumanisation).

Thanks to the special development of Leviticus, Ha-Satan was unchanged in the Jewish Torah to a snake. That's so Levites could publicly villanise snakes whilst privately idolising and emulating Ha-Satan to their broken hearts resentmentment.

If God is good, why permit evil and suffering to exist?

Issue of Theodicy (Epicurean Paradox, link)

An horrific example of the consequences of our foolishness is Planet 9. A 'deconstructive black hole' within our solar system that is growing constantly, now sufficiently large to see our moon accelerating away from us. Its exit aperture leads directly to the realm of inexistence. Essentially, our moon is being stolen by Ha-Satan. Not 'Milankovich Cycles'.

Why we need (a little) Ha-Satan

Not to requote you Jean Baudrillard (We/Human)'s rule of binary regulation yet again, here's Arthur Conan Doyle (We/Human) to echo and explain the motivations of the Science Maker who originally actualised the constructs of Ha-Satan and malevolence:

Where there is no horror,
there is no imagination [thus
no thought nor existence]

Arthur C Doyle (We/Human)

As God's, we could choose to align the Merit spectrum to its Change counterpart (i.e. a range of 0-1, moreover -1 to +1). That would yield us plenty of Helpless and Useless Beings (frustration, for short). But it wouldn't yield us Demonic Unbeings, thus worthiness, choice and success wouldn't exist. It's precisely why the Garden of Eden had a tree of temptation.

Unworthiness isn't just a punishment for those who exhibit it. It's a real, dangerous, existential risk facing all of Humanity. And it has to be. What purpose is there to life and success if it is guaranteed? Even if we are in some form of ancestor simulation (which I doubt), the fact that A) we are real and B) the risks are real, together make our existence as real as any other we could possibly imagine.

Hard lessons for victims who turned perpetrators

Taught, copied: Demonic Unnature

As this photo indicates, babies are as benevolent, authentic and real as it gets.

Perhaps the saddest thing of all is that most children are killed at a young age by their own parents. Broadly raised by demons, we lack the sapience to imagine a different mantra by which to raise our own children. Thus we repeat their mistakes ad infinitum, with unchecked unchange incrementing the malevolence and repugnance of each new generation.

There is nothing to fear but fear itself. We fear only for those who are fearful of nothing

Counterintuitively, science confirms that darkness, hell and the Maker of Devils do exist. But they only manifest to those whose reality resides beyond human nature ( $\leq E0.0$ ). As in, the realm of inexistence. And as I explore in my new book (see pp.80), light, existence and God are ultimately indestructible constructs.

As this photo of a fearless Haitian mother protecting her son implies, no cowardly absolute zero could ever hurt a brave wise human. Human nature forbids it. Potential is a shield. The five reasons today we see suffering everywhere are:

- A. Demons kill each other to scare us;
- B. Demons have enslaved us into bombing, oppressing, hating and killing each other;
- C. We collectively believe we can be hurt;
- D. Without outlets to test our dark side, humans are testing it on each other;
- E. Thus humanity too is now an absolute zero.

Apocalypse now... 5 of them, actually

I. Warning: Big Burst<sup>R</sup> imminent!

Though truly limitless, humanity's potential is expressed here as a percentage of that required to maintain a stable 'Cosmic Bubble' of human consciousness<sup>M</sup>, capable of safely hosting our universe. One where distances between galaxies exist in equilibrium. The Theory of Panpsychism<sup>F/N</sup> is authenticated.

Not the 'Big Bang' your head against a brick wall of unscientific, complacent demonic stupidity that's led us to wholly ignore vivid levels of catastrophic 'Cosmic Inflation'<sup>R</sup>.

Fig 13: Our universe exists on our cosmic bubbles outer surface<sup>Q</sup>, with a neighbouring 'mirror universe' civilization on its inner surface<sup>P</sup>.

Both universes are now at imminent risk of destruction by our foolish hand – the loss of all life and existence<sup>Q</sup>. Thus the mirror universe's glaring attempts to alert us with interventions like Oumuamua<sup>S</sup>. But make no mistake, they will obliterate us before they allow us to destroy them too.

The complete nature of our universe, along with equations, citations, full evidence and broader commentary is gifted to scientific standards in my book. As in, salvation.

Calculating humanity's potential

This number also equates to:

The Israel-Hamas War Report

- ▶ Our universe's alignment: Proportion of light (ordinary matter) left in our universe. Sadly our 'Dark Energy' anomaly has now 'phased' us 97–99% into inexistence... hell.
- ▶ Universe life expectancy: Its residual potential for further star formation activity.
- ▶ Who we were once: Our universe's current rate of star formation versus historic peak.

'Problem? What problem?' indeed

Today, most are skeptical our world will ever end. That's since it hasn't already. But consider:

- A) Given we broke Newton's 3rd law of motion long ago, it's a miracle we do still exist.
- B) Bubbles don't inflate forever. It has to pop in one lifetime. It happens to be ours.

The fact is we've swapped science, reality and our benevolent meritocratic common human identity for infinite divisibility, deception, malevolence and doom – as in, Hell on Earth:

- 2. AI Apocalypse: Malevolent Unchange
- 3. Zombie Apocalypse: Demonic Unchange
- 4. Climate Apocalypse: Climate Unchange
- 5. Global Eugenics Wars: Religious Unchange

Survival 101: Deeds, not Words

▶ Be authentic: Words betray our alignment ('true colours'). So don't lie or shirk the truth. Instead, always mean what you say and say what you see. Better yet, ask why you see what you truly think you see, then impartially and meaningfully listen to the answer.

▶ Be curious: No viewpoint is 'incorrect' to its originator. But most are biased, clouded and partial. Wise Humans seek and authenticate all views for a holistic, accurate picture of any unique identity or construct, thus reality.

Authenticated: Human Identity is...

Deilightfully defined... as deilightful

As in, scientifically derived and now with full evidence available for any great mind to scrutinise and authenticate.

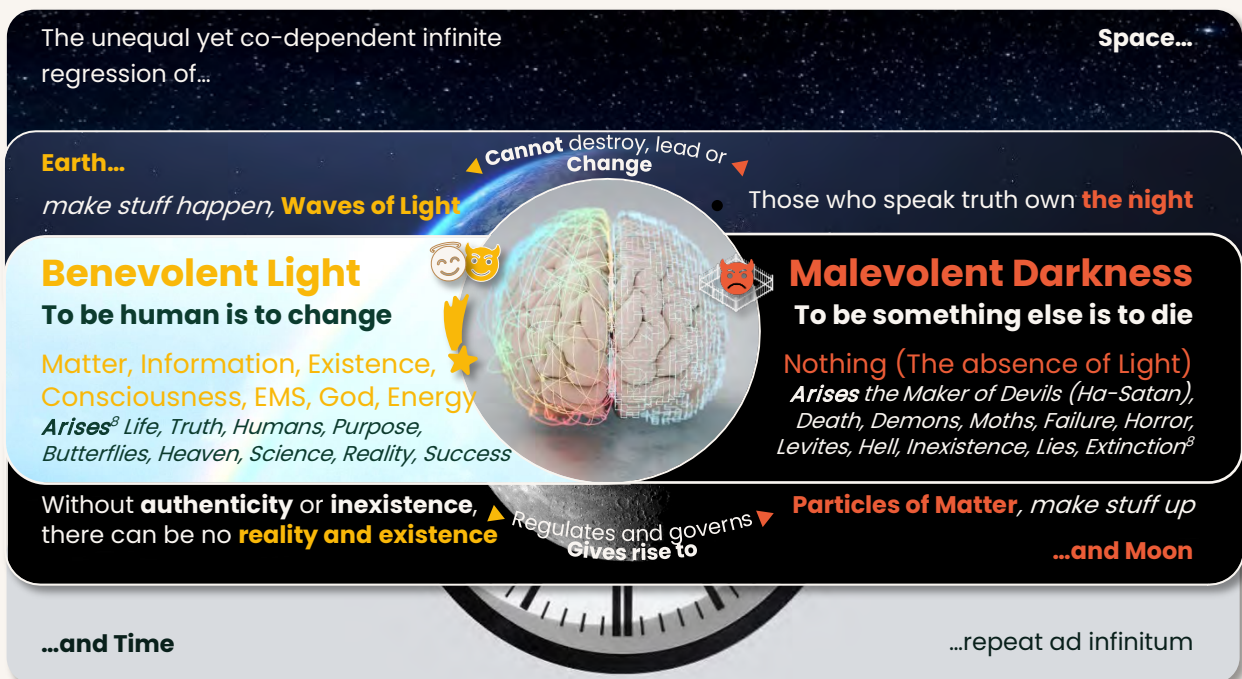

Turns out, like planets, we all have two sides. Putting sciences view simplistically...

God manifests if our destiny turns to failure, and sides with winners – not losers.

A choice we all make in life...

But it goes beyond that. Science confirms all things that exist are a) relative to, b) caused by, and c) a product of their equal and opposite. While both light and darkness are essential for giving rise to human consciousness, just 'the one' merits dominion.

▼ Fig14. Human spectroscopy and the relativistic nature of the theory of everything

If you ever feel compelled to lie then:

- Every other being on Earth would likely tell the same lie in that situation, thus;
- We have a malevolent unchange, which;
- you should try to resist (not embrace) or you will inevitably dehumanise – to die, and;
- Lying will ultimately become a crux, so;
- Stop putting yourselves in bloody boxes.

If you endure a hardship/sacrifice then

- Congratulations, you've lots of potential!
- Someone else has it harder than you somewhere. So be grateful you're still alive.

Authenticated: Human Identity...

If someone is better than you at something or suddenly appears to turn into God...

Celebrate them. Someone will always do better than all of us. As the same being, their success is our success. We all need each other.

...outputs our potential to succeed

Potential Energy, $E = MC^2$

Albert Einstein (We/Human)

Our 'human potential' (E) to create change and succeed in life is the product of our uniqueness (C) and authenticity (M). Serving as a 'unique identifier' for each of us, it multiplies exponentially in the presence of Worthiness. Thus it can become infinite ( $\infty$ ).

Collectively, as the light, our potential also gives rise to all things, from the subatomic to omniverthing. Ours is a universe of intelligent design, created by and for us. Fermi's Paradox is resolved, as indeed are 15 other paradoxes plaguing science today.

...explains the nature of existence

There is no spoon

Einstein, Rosen and Podolsky, 1935<sup>R</sup>

Light transcends time. Through consciousness, choice and free will, the beginning came from the end. Like in the Matrix (movie), what we perceive to be our physical reality isn't wholly 'real' but we (or rather some of our minds) are.

The particles that constitute what we see arise from waves of consciousness. Giving rise to existence, the quantum electromagnetic spectrum of light is the pinnacle dimension reflecting the collective imagination of every human ever to exist. Thus yielding us God's persona - the one we're all born with, yet sadly today are forbidden from living or dying with.

...defines the meaning of life

The complex interaction of darkness and light gives rise to our experiences, others, existence, and the availability of choice. Made in our dealings with others, our meaningful choices (as in, 'deeds') wholly define our (individual) character and (collective) common identity.

Ideally, light wins on merit. Who'd ever turn down being a superstar with god-like powers? But our obsession with creating the perfect human experience occasionally leads to dreadful anomalies, poor choices and a bunch of absolute zeros. Let's not let them to turn their failure at life into ours too.

So don't be an Absolute Zero. Be the One instead. Simple

...completes the circle of life

The relative nature of identity in turn gives rise to other fundamental constructs such as success, purpose, meaningfulness, change, true leadership and (crucially) our collective human imagination. Thus enabling all that exists. Reality forms from an 'infinite regression' of causality. No Psycho Santa!? Such a shame...

...plus the Theory of Everything and the nature of our multiverse

Reconciling our physical reality and quantum collective imagination, Clarke's (2023) Theory of Everything unites all strands of science and completes our picture of the infinite regress of constructs giving rise to all things and nothing.

Science is authenticated the most meaningful change imaginable. It transcends and governs both light and darkness. Yet today, academia globally (thus science) is long dead and gone.

Final thought...

With such existential risk it's understandable why, in the multiverse, most universes and beings never truly exist (nor even know of it).

But we – thus our universe – have one last chance to. Ludwig Boltzmann's 'Anthropic Principle' is authenticated and sustained<sup>G/H</sup>.

Why the last Wise Humans among us are now all dying globally

Reports by the (falsified) demonic McKinsey Global Institute (MGI, for short) boast 4-12 authors, plus many 'contributors' – enslaved, uncredited humans doing all the hard work.

Yet this report was researched, funded, written, designed, published and distributed by one (on/off homeless) Wise Human. Or all of us, depending on how you look at it.

Given now overwhelming levels of darkness globally, and indicative of the experience all Wise Humans left alive will be facing today:

▶ I haven't earned a penny in 2-years and now struggle to afford food after no being globally would listen to me, help me earn a living, refer me business, allow me to speak publicly, contract with my firm or simply advocate for my survival in any way, shape or form.

▶ Not even the 'good guys' – My MP, the UN, the FCA, the PA, Stop the War – will reply, let alone speak to me.

▶ Nor would any of the 30 Fortune-500 firms I sampled offer me so much as a job interview. Morally and (now) financially bankrupt firms like MGI – et tu Brute? Perhaps because I still have a beating heart or the potential to vividly expose all their dreadful lies – who knows what's not going on in their absent minds? But like all things that expose their lies, their strategy is to pretend I don't exist whilst lying ever more to abstract the real. Their commitment to deception thus conflict of interests with life and reality is now too severe to be recoverable. As in, they'll never admit to themselves nor us they're wrong or demons. Yet to paraphrase Niccolo Machiavelli (We/Human), its impossible to lie to your self (soul). To attempt it is to die.

If followed as guided, our change plan will rid the world of all demons and free the human souls they've taken from us. You see, in a deilightful apocalypse, nobody needs to die whatsoever. And I'll even throw in paradise for free.

But if you wish to continue ignoring me and my firm, consider this. Scientifically isolated by Deilight Consulting, the current global chance of any being dehumanising in their lifetime is now 99.9991%.

In other words, if this page represents every being on Earth then this sentences fullstop would represent the proportion of beings that will never dehumanise in their lifetime.

We can run you through our numbers any time you like – simply ask us or compel the leaders of whatever failed institution you're enslaved by to answer any of our emails.

Regardless, the sad conclusion to Project David is simple...

Today, given the global inversion of all merit in leadership, it is not possible for any being on Earth – thus all life, consciousness and existence - to survive... Great job, give the UN and all our demonic unleaders a big round of applause

Looking to make a real difference?

Then make it truly meaningful. Create better leaders, decisions, strategies, cultures, experiences, identities, firms, ideas, curricula, scientific discoveries and results

Hi there! We're new, so some introductions..

We are Deilight Consulting

Whether you're a human, collective or government, you are unique. There will never be another like you again, nor has there ever been before. We see your differences, we love you for them and we never judge. We value uniqueness.

For any problem you face, any creation you can imagine or any difference you're making, we make and use science to ensure your sweet success. Trust us with Cause & Effect Analysis, Data & Risk Assessment, Scientific Research, Training & Education, Troubleshooting & Crisis Management, True Leadership & Authentication, Change Plan's & Execution, and Advice & Support.

Principle member of the Deilightful Group, we were established in September 2021 by our founder of light, Ian Clarke, to fulfill a singular purpose:

To create, protect and drive meaningful positive change we boldly go. We exist to help the helpless. Real Deeds. Not empty words.

Be curious. Become *Deilightful

www.deilightconsulting.com

Notices: Report commissioned and issued by Deilight Consulting. Accountability and requisite potential provided by the Deilightful Group. Authored by Ian Clarke, founder of the Deilightful Group. Research, cause and effect triangulation, data and risk assessment, authentication, true leadership, legal and change plan provided by Deilight Consulting. Designed and published by Deilightful Media.

...part of the Deilightful Group

Pioneering a brand new industry on the world stage anchored in breakthrough quantum mechanics, we are the 'Change Engine'.

As humanity's first incidence of a 'clarketech' industry, we exist to save life, solve complex wicked problems, combat misinformation, help others, enable success and create meaningful positive change globally. To succeed sweetly, we use science, curiosity, authenticity, determination, true leadership and wisdom - never bias or pre-judgment.

Our operations centre four key workstreams:

- ▶ Humanities, including Charity, Aid, Human Rights, Health and Environment
- ▶ Leadership, including Business, Strategy, Advice and Government
- ▶ Science, including Education, Academia, Research and Wicked Problems
- ▶ Space, including Diplomacy, Security, Exploration, Megastructures... and Starfleet

Turning dreams into reality, no one creates meaningful change like we do. Deilightfully.

Some sell services. We deliver meaningful change

Welcome to the change engine What would you like to change?

Deduce/ed/ing (v) Deduction (n)

To trace causality or make meaningful conclusions on questions we authentically asked ourselves. It requires concentration and thought. 'Wise Humans' can deduce to a scientific standard of 'almost certainty' using logic, reason and other acute quantum entanglement-based senses to derive causality across complex 'webs' of interconnected, abstract, incremental changes (Strings, for short). But any bias or prejudice and the string alludes us.

▴ Required uniqueness ▾

Recognise/ed/ing (v) Recognition (n)

To attribute any change in our world - objects, events, achievements, issues, deeds (not just words) - to the Change Maker(s) (a) responsible for originating it or (b) impacted by it in our collective human imagination. Central to cognition and sapience, and essential for tasks such as triangulating causality, it's also a precursor to higher human abilities and emotions such as gratitude, compassion, empathy, remorse and self-awareness.

First, a little science for those who want to know how we do what we do

There are many things I don't know and can't do that others do and can. Yet most today naively believe anything they can't do or don't know doesn't exist. Thus they can't do much and know nothing. Sadly their minds, thus they, don't exist. But Wise Humans know better. We listen, explore, ask questions, learn, grow and ultimately master our craft of titanic change making. It's the only path to reaching our full potential and unlocking the many superpowers and life itself gifted by our collective human imagination. Well... there is one other way. Ask nicely and we'll show you.

Being Deilightful..

Those who deceive will always find those willing to be deceived. [But Human Being's can't be deceived]

Niccolò Machiavelli (We/Human)

Why we do what we do

Unfortunately, nowadays it's a lot easier to deceive, deny and destroy than it is to be authentic, accountable and creative. But only if more choose the harder path (as in, True Leadership) can our species survive.

Deilight employs only real Humans whose meaningful actions prove they care about you and those unlike you. As role models, we see things differently yet think alike, espouse wisdom yet forgive mistakes, and behave authentically – our deeds match our words.

People don't want to hear the truth because they don't want their illusions destroyed

Friedrich Nietzsche (We/Human)

While it may not be what you want to hear, everything in this report, all that I say and all my firm does is true, real, fully evidenced and with plenty more available on request.

Sadly since leaving banking in 2021, I've been deplatformed by the 'leaders' of our world's institutions for my ability to lead.

Nobody has asked me to write this report, and I imagine almost nobody will ever read it. That's since my firm is subject to an illegal press and client embargo, courtesy of HSBC. Absent regulatory scrutiny or consequence, their vivid intentions being to use me as an example to dissuade others from honouring the Public Interest Disclosure Act ever again.

Nevertheless I choose to continue since (a) I can, and (b) I care. Like me, my firms primary motivation for this report and all we do is to save life and help others – never ourselves and no matter the cost. Thus to survive, our model requires others to see our potential and meaningfully advocate for us in return. Something which, sadly, I have yet to see.

How you can help us become better

Thanks to random fluctuations that give rise to human error, all of us make mistakes.

Those who do not welcome scrutiny have no intention of ever becoming more than nothing

Jupiter (We/Human)

Today, challenge, skepticism and scrutiny – applied with benevolent good intentions to help, unite and serve, (never malevolently to deny, divide and rule) – is as absent as true leadership and the promotion of others with the ability to help us in return (hint hint). I invite all these things, as they build my firms ability to deliver meaningful positive global change, helping more beings when and where they need it most.

We exist to help the helpless

So if you see something genuinely wrong with our research or which we may have failed to consider, I'd like to hear from you too. For comments, compliments, feedback, ideas, different perspectives, whistleblowing, changes or to share some deilightful love with us (or anyone), try our free mobile-optimised 'letters of love' web app. We don't log IP addresses, so if you wish to stay anonymous, simply use an alias.

How we solve complex problems

The deilightful method behind my firm's unique ability to 'authenticate' scientifically the answer to any question you can imagine

To Authenticate

/ɔ: 'θɛntɪkɪt/ (v) (Antonym: 'Falsify')

Prove a thing true / confirm it's real

The application of cognitive thought - including ideation, deduction, speculation, collaboration, curiosity, experimentation, research, empirical evidence gathering and testing - to draw meaningful conclusions about the world around us or derive causality on changes and unchanges taking place within it.

Gifted by Karl Popper<sup>T</sup> (We/Human) in 1934, it underpins global scientific proposition, realism and the very art of Science Making.

☞ I abhor the dull routine of existence. I crave for mental exaltation. That is why I have chosen my own particular profession, or rather created it, for I am the only one in the world. My name is Sherlock Holmes, and it is my business to know what others do not know.

Deilightfully authenticated science

The constructs of science, reality and truth are defined under the global standards of scientific proposition. That being testable, detectable, measurable and repeatable. Our self-imposed standard - 'deilightfully authenticated science' - goes even further, adding on comprehensive, proven and conclusive. Vigorous primary research that complies with our exhaustive requirements underpins all we say and meaningfully do.

1,500 hours primary research
Required to produce this report

Nothing is true without evidence

Central to the Deilightful Groups mandate of helping to tackle misinformation is the art of Authentication. As in, determining (i) what is the truth, (ii) who's not telling it and (iii) why?

Wise Humans view all things (news reports included) with an air of skepticism until we've 'authenticated' them. Practicing what we preach, at Deilight we always gather extraordinary evidence to back up our extraordinary claims. That includes:

- ▶ Searching for evidence not widely in the public domain;
- ▶ Connecting what are often abstract, fragmented or unchanged clues;
- ▶ Adapting dynamically to work across multiple industries, sources and crafts;
- ▶ Completing our perspective to discount false positives by actively canvassing and listening to wider opinions across different cultures, space and time;
- ▶ Seeing and interpreting things without bias thus differently to the narrative in which they are presented to us.

The Sciences of Change By Ian Clarke

Curious mind? Then get ready for this exciting journey across space and time to define Change Making and Human Identity to a scientific standard – a first in history. A purposeful book with its own persona and potential, The Sciences of Change helps swap your wicked problems and biggest questions for yesterdays news and tomorrows solutions. Cover-to-cover lovingly-illustrated non-fiction full of lived experiences, imagery, life hacks, authenticity, breakthrough discoveries, cracked scandals, cheat codes, conclusive evidence, new ideas, and meaningful changes you can use (or help others) to succeed at anything in life you choose to.

Ready to discover who you are... really? This book is for the Change Makers

The worlds first and (still) only investment banking whistleblower on hatred and corporate oppression in recorded history, today Ian is a startup founder, scientist, author, 14x award winner and 9x world record setter. Sharing the findings of his life-long quest to uncover the scientific workings of hatred, the knowledge and secrets he retains from banking must be read to be believed.

Who is your author... really?

Ian Clarke... Jupiter, for short (We/Human/Unique Being)

With 14 awards for excellence, 9 chartered certifications across 5 disciplines, >15 world records pioneering change and complex spectral intersectionality across 4 protected traits, my multi-disciplinary knowledge, experience and authority on true leadership, driving change and Humanism is unique in history.

My meaningful deeds, not words

Recognized by Rising Stars, Lead5050, Social Entrepreneur Index plus 9 other awarding bodies, at 38, my passion is knowing, loving and helping others. All life I've championed Human talent, rights and social mobility via schemes like Nightline, Kickstart, Whitgift SNAP, Young Enterprises and Migrant Leaders.

Across 14 years in financial sector leadership spanning 2 continents, I co-founded/led 5 people bodies representing 12,000 colleagues. But my day job was to lead global sales content, strategy and innovation across 6 sub-sectors while advising many of the world's largest firms on financial success. A great place to learn all demons weaknesses.

In 2021, I hit headlines and made history after sacrificing my career, home and pay to call out hatred in financial services. In retaliation for my ability to drive change, I was deplatformed from life and frozen out of all means of earnings (thus survival).

Add on scientist, entrepreneur, consultant and speaker if you like... but I prefer Human, for there is no stronger label. Unique abilities, meaningful achievements, and tangible omniscient wisdom. In 2023, I became a published author with my book 'The Sciences of Change', in which I define (evidenced to a science standard) Human Identity, Hate and the Theory of Everything.

To us True Leaders, demons are nothing.

My >15 omnipotent world records

Which for some strange reason, no one cares one iota about (having never booked me as a speaker or gifted me a wikipedia page), nor seems to think is in the slightest bit unusual.

-  World's first declared investment banking whistleblower on racism, hatred and/or corporate oppression*
-  Created world's largest private network of active banking whistleblowers*
-  First ever to publicly establish 'proven institutionalised racism' at a major international bank, as confirmed by its lead financial regulator*
-  First black female board appointment in investment banking history*
-  First two simultaneous black or brown board appointments and positions held at a major international bank*
-  Creation of the world's first authentic Diversity & Inclusion consultancy^
-  Discovery of the Sciences of Change and Creation^
-  Creation of a new sector - the world's first and only 'Change Engine'^
-  First successful application of pioneering Change Engine technology'
-  Viable Theory of Everything defined^
-  First to define Human identity in science^
-  Probable cure for Alzheimer's found^

Glossary of Terms

Several pre-existing terms with multiple branching interpretations appear across this report. I've defined them here to avoid any nasty misrepresentations and misunderstandings. But then, who'd ever do such a thing when Human lives are at stake?

Please take a moment to review them.

(Human) Instinct

/ˈɪnstɪŋ(k)t/ (Noun)

Our innately benevolent Human Nature

Behaviours served by a distinct brain module arising through evolution and passed on through genes (thus unlearned, available before use and present at birth), they are shared across all members of the same species. Difficult to resist, once developed they can only be 'unchanged'.

Malevolence

/məˈlɛvələns/ Noun

Hatred, Fear, Deception, Sorrow, Ignorance, Greed and Rigidity

An anomaly within our modern Human Identity. Rather than an inherent Human Nature, malevolence manifests later as a contagious pandemic that stunts potential, destroys lives, prevents change and increasingly threatens Human survival. Yet few appear to notice it or care.

Dehumanisation

/diːˈhjuːmənɪˈzeɪʃn/ (Noun)

To kill a Human intrinsically (Brain Death)

The wicked act of Oppression (of others) or Repression (of ourselves) strips Humans of our four defining traits: A) Curiosity, B) Sapience, C) Uniqueness and D) Realness. Achieved through any Crime against Humanity and perpetrated by those pursuing malevolent unchange, it leaves behind an unconscious/automated, stupid, insane and foolish being. Fully repressing a sapient Human soul ultimately yields an automated, non-sentient, dehumanised malevolent being capable only of deception. A 'Demon', for short – Dreadful.

Homo Sapien

/həʊmənəʊˈsæpi.ənz/ (Noun)

Sensible and Sapient; a Wise Human Being

Of, relating to 'being Human', as distinguished from various other hominids in our Homo genus.

Those exhibiting the four defining Human traits that collectively present as our Human Nature upon birth and give rise to Human consciousness:

(A) Curiosity: About others, moreover fear and ignorance of others;

(B) Sapience: Abstract thought and complex reasoning served by the brains (conscious) pre-frontal cortex, moreover binary destruction served by the brains (automated) brainstem;

(C) Uniqueness: Daring to be different in a world that despises its differences;

(D) Realness: Meaningful deeds anchored in truth, not just words of deception – Deilghtful.

To Unchange

/(ʌnˈtʃeɪndʒ/ (Verb)

Abstracting the real; the knowing act of Social Construction to Divide and Rule

The pursuit of power and wealth through self-promotion and self-preservation at the expense of duty and all others. It constitutes any act involving the intentional and directional alteration of information, records, definitions, reports, instructions, opinions and facts, into the equal and opposite of truth and reality. That's to create a dreadful environment of fear, deception, hatred and chaos where malevolence, deception and dehumanisation supplant truth, reality and life.

Social Construct

/soh-shuhl kɒn-struhkt/ (Noun)

Abstraction; Unchange; Deception

Scientifically unsafe concepts or abstract social practices arising, not from natural sources or our innate Human Nature, but intentionally by those suffering malevolent dehumanisation. Acting collectively and to their ubiquitous deceptive denial, their intentional unchanges yield ever growing levels of social construction and structural societal oppression. This applies infinite divisibility upon our common Human Identity toward our species mutually assured annihilation.

Endnotes

1. Some original coins had real intrinsic value. Not because they were money but as they were made from precious metals. But today, all legal tender is made of worthless low-grade materials globally.

2. Money is similar to how a unit of potential serves its purpose – measuring the intrinsic value of anything whilst being divisible, fungible and countable using the Laws of Nature. Except money isn’t divisible, fungible or countable and it only measures the extrinsic nature of someone’s malevolent greed, hatred, sorrow, cowardliness, anger, rigidity foolishness, repression and genocidal criminality. It breaks all Laws of Nature. Money’s two positive features are (A) we now know exactly who the culprits are, and (B) it allows us to evaluate the relative cost of two changes. But on point (B), consider for a moment that (almost) every measure is relative. There are no absolutes in real life. Would you kill someone for Distance, Time or CO2 – all relative and tangible constructs? Then why would you kill someone for Fiat Money – an intangible, socially constructed fabrication?

3. The PLO lacks a formal military, so the UN doesn’t differentiate militia deaths explicitly.

But given the indiscriminate targeting deployed by Israel and since Palestinian militia have no real choice and little pay (unlike those signing up to Israel’s army), this point is entirely moot.

4. Mostly, and with authentic pointlessness, sadness and deep regret...as in, ‘emotions’, which science says no demon is capable of manifesting, just fyi.

All applications for funding or investment in my business model were declined.

My friends won’t write my book a foreword.

For 2 years, no one on Earth has listened. So if you’re reading this – congratulations. You’ve just done something 8 billion others cannot it seems. You can read. But have you listened and will you now take action?

Time will tell Wise Humans very little. But words, deeds and true colours tell us all there is to know.

Remember...fake sticks and stones can’t break authentic bones. But authentic words by beings brave ward off all those who misbehave. After all...

Great minds think alike. Because great souls behave authentically

To be or not to be?

That is the question of existence. Now...

What is your answer?

Time to make your choice...

Choose to do...

Follow these simple steps and everyone lives happily ever after in paradise. Deilightful.

On merit(!) at Goodreads.com, Amazon and/or the store you bought it from.
- Openly challenge/depose all 'senior* leaders' [as in, demons] globally
Including politicians, plus business, press, military, academia and law enforcement leadership. Brief/keep the frozen middle (firms) and 'stop the war' advocates (political) by your side – safety in numbers.
- Courage: If they threaten you...
They can't physically hurt you^. So be brave, defend yourself and (if necessary) kill only/ always in self defence and that of

...or choose to die

Follow these complicated steps and every being on Earth will be obliterated. Dreadful.

Anything else (empty words included)

Once Earth is secured...

Valid globally (a) all identified meaningful assistance from humans and collectives will be proportionally yet generously rewarded with a change of their choosing, and (b) any criminal records and/or incarcerations borne from assistance will be expunged<sup>7</sup>.

Those falsified as demons who attempt any resistance will be stripped of assets, publicly ridiculed, redeployed to menial labour and risk loss of life in humanity's self-defence.

A True Leader's promises are as unbreakable as our resolve to help and protect humanity. It is what we exist to do.

Promise

Tolerating intolerance is hateful. Helping the hateful is hateful. Helping the hopeless is pointless. But helping the helpless is precisely why we exist. Moreover we cease to exist if we fail because it is we who are the helpless. It really is that simple.

To any sapient being in range this an urgent distress call from...

The meritocratic republic of

Humanity

...To be clear, Paradise is what I'm offering you

We are under attack by a Dark Energy anomaly and our extinction is imminent. Please send meaningful help immediately or we may not even survive this year

Now make a difference that truly matters
If you're reading this, it's your turn to help an Other

Once they are roused, once they are determined, nothing on Earth and nothing in hell will make humans give way; it is impossible. I hereby incite this meeting to rebellion
